VON KLUCK CONTINUES TO MAKE DETERMINED STAND

French Announcement Says Battle to North of the Oise, Commenced Seriously Ten Days Ago, Continues With Great Violence, But No Decisive Result—Admits, However, That French Troops Have Been Forced to Yield Some at Certain Points.

GERMANS SAY ALL IS SUCCESSFUL FOR THEM

According to Late Russian Accounts, Defeat of German Army Which Invaded That Country From East Prussia Was Even More Decisive Than at First Reported—They Were Routed Completely With Loss of 70,000 Men, Abandoning All.

London, Oct. 5.—General Von Kluck, reinforced with troops from the German center, continues to make a determined stand against the attempt of the allies to outflank him.

The French, who yesterday officially reported that all German attacks in this region have been repulsed and that the allies had resumed the offensive, announced today that the battle to the north of the Oise, which commenced seriously about September 25, continues with great violence with no decisive result and that at certain points the French troops have had to yield ground.

The Germans, in their report issued last night, say the battle is proceeding successfully for them.

Both in London and in Paris there is the greatest confidence, although some surprise is displayed at the success of the Germans in preventing the outflanking movement. There is a feeling, however, that the Germans cannot extend their line much further north without weakening it at some point.

Along the rest of the line, the French communication says, there has been no change. Therefore, the progress in the region of Soissons and in Woevre, reported Sunday night, either has satisfied them for the moment or they have been checked by the Germans. Of the fighting here, as on their right, the German report says it is proceeding favorably for the German arms.

Progress by either side must be extremely slow, for after every advance, no matter how slight, the troops making it must entrench themselves for protection against the shells from the enemy's guns, posted in strong positions from one end of the line to the ther.

GERMAN DEFEAT IN EAST DECISIVE.

The defeat of the German army which invaded Russia from East Prussia appears from Russian accounts to have been even more decisive than previously stated. According to the Russian ambassador at Rome, the Germans were routed completely with a loss of 70,000 men and have been forced to abandon everything.

The Russians now are moving forward with the object of again invading East Prussia. This victory, if it is as complete as reported, is of the greatest importance to the Russians, undertaking, from land and sea, operations which would have compelled Russia to turn at least a part of her attention if it will prevent the Germans from undertaking action in this direction.

General Rennengampf apparently drove a wedge between the two German forces which were advancing upon Druskeniki and Ossowetz and brought about the battle of Augustowo which resulted in a Russian victory. If the Germans have not retired from the left bank of the Niemen river at Druskeniki, their defeat at Augustowo must compel them to do so. The moral effect of another invasion of East Prussia will also be of importance.

ANOTHER BIG BATTLE IMPENDING.

No news has been received today from the Silesian and Galician battlefields and probably the main armies have not come together there. A big battle cannot be delayed much longer, however, as on the Silesian frontier both armies are moving forward and will meet in Russian Poland.

Before the Russian advance in Galicia the peasants are fleeing the country and it is reported that 20,000 of them have reached Bosnia.

The sanitary department of Vienna reports that four cases of Asiatic cholera have occurred among the troops returning from Galicia, but that all have been isolated.

SITUATION AT ANTWERP.

At Antwerp, the official report says, the situation in the fortified positions remains unchanged. Fighting continues also in the Near East and the Anglo-French fleet has succeeded in destroying Lustica, an outer defense of the Austrian seaport of Cattaro.

While the Servian and Montenegrins are attacking the fortifications of Sarajevo, Belgrade, which has been under fire so often, has not been bombarded for several days, probably as a result of re-occupation of Semlin by the Servians.

Skirmishes have occurred on the Anglo-French frontier in West Africa with the result that the Germans have made raids into British territory for the purpose of cutting the Uganda Railway. All these raids, according to the British official report, have been repulsed.

While the routine life in England is not seriously upset by the war, the regulations in many respects are becoming more stringent. In order to keep the army provided with warm clothing, the authorities have commandeered large quantities of woolens in Leicester, a step which is likely to be followed elsewhere.

FROM GERMAN HEADQUARTERS.

All Well With the Germans in France and Belgium, They Say.

London, Oct. 5.—A Reuter dispatch from Berlin via Amsterdam gives an official statement issued at the German headquarters on the evening of October 4th. It says:

"In the western theatre the battle on the right wing and in the Argonne district is proceeding successfully. The operations off Antwerp and in the eastern theatre have been carried out according to plan and without fighting."

FRENCH NIGHT STATEMENT.

General Position Stationary—Action Continues on West.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The following official communication was issued tonight by the French war office:

"The general position is stationery. On our left wing the action still continues.

"In the region of the Argonne and on the heights of the Meuse, we have repulsed night and day attacks.

"Grand Duke Nicholas has addressed to the ministry of war to be transmitted to General Joffre a telegram announcing the victory of Augustowo. General Joffre has sent, in his name and in the name of the French army, his warmest congratulations to the commander in chief of the friendly and allied army on the battle won, which is a guarantee of future successes."

JAPANESE IN SOUTH SEAS.

Squadron Begins Work of Destroying German Fleet, Says Tokio.

Tokio, Oct. 6.—1:30 A. M.—The navy department today issued the following official statement:

"The Japanese squadron delegated to destroy the German fleet in the South Seas has landed bluejackets at Jaiut Island, which was annexed by Germany in 1886.

"It is believed the German base was destroyed, fortifications, ammunition and provisions seized. A British steamer in port was released. There was no resistance to the Japanese."

DEFEAT OF GERMANS COMPLETE.

DAY'S WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE

Only brief reference concerning actual fighting is made by the French war office in its official report on the conflict in northern France. "The general situation is stationary," it says.

Of present positions on the left wing of the allies' line, where a previous report had said the French had been obliged at certain points to cede ground to the Germans, the later war office statement merely declares that the action still continues. It adds that in the Argonne and Meuse regions day and night attacks by the Germans have been repulsed by the allies.

In the eastern war zone, the Russians report that, having conquered the Germans in Russian Poland, two Russian armies are invading East Prussia with Allenstein as their objective.

In the south, on the Adriatic, French men of war are reported again to be bombarding the Austrian port of Cattaro.

As yet the situation surrounding the forts at Antwerp, which are under bombardment by the Germans, has not been cleared up definitely. The Germans still claim they have captured several of the outer fortifications, while the Belgians declare the defences remain intact.

A report from Berlin that British ships have arrived at Lisbon and that Portugal's co-operation with the allies in the war is imminent, brought forth a statement from the Portuguese minister at Washington that his country was prepared to take such a step whenever Great Britain should call upon her to do so, under the treaty of mutual protection existing between the two countries.

Great Britain is investigating coal shipment from the United States under the suspicion that the cargoes, instead of reaching ports to which they are consigned, reach German warships at sea.

The Prince of Wales' relief fund has reached $15,000,000.

ADVANCED DETACHMENTS COMPELLED TO FALL BACK

So Strong Was Resistance Encountered on West Wing When Allied Armies Took Most Vigorous Offensive—French and British Forces Extending Continually Toward North and Bending Eastward—Details.

On the Battle Front, via Paris, Oct. 5.—The allied armies, after having permitted their adversaries, as they thought, to exhaust themselves by continued attacks, today took a most vigorous offensive. The British and French encountered such a strong resistance, however, that their most advanced detachments on the western wing were compelled to fall back. Only at this part of the long battle line did the opposing troops actually come into close contact.

Many picturesque villages, around which hundreds of thousand of men occupy positions, have suffered severely in the recent fighting and probably will suffer stil more before the struggle is over.

The country where the chief fighting is going on is flat and under cultivation. In many places it is boggy and there are scattered coal mines.

The allied armies are extending continually toward the north and bending eastward toward the Belgian frontier, thus compelling the Germans, in order to prevent the crumbling up of their main army, to move large forces from the center and so keep pace with the allies, whose position menaces the invaders along the whole line. The allies' plan, it is thought, may compel the Germans to release the pressure on the Belgians.

The rapidity with which the French change position is considered remarkable. Two entire divisions of infantry marched nearly 30 miles Saturday and 28 miles Sunday. The Germans, however, by means of their aviators who are flitting continually over the lines despite numerous casualties, discovered the movements and brought up reinforcements to meet them.

As the Germans are in the inside of the circle, they are able to reach an appointed spot with much shorter marches. It was this that enabled them to force the advanced guards of the allies to cede a small amount of ground until further assistance arrived.

At another point on the allies front, a French regiment, after three days in the trenches, on being ordered to the rear for a rest, sent a petition through their colonel to the commanding general asking permission to remain until the German position facing them was taken.

This was granted and the men advanced. Although they met with such a terrific fire from the machine guns that an advance of 800 yards took tight hours, they captured the position and a number of prisoners. They themselves suffered severely.

French cavalry executed a daring raid back of the German lines where they blew up a railroad tunnel and escaped.

British lancers and French troopers performed a brilliant exploit at another point. Getting between the Imperial Guard and their artillery ammunition train by a long, dashing ride, they cut off the supplies, destroying them so that the guards' big guns were rendered temporarily useless.

General Jean Rousseau, of the French cavalry, died today of wounds.

Audacious espionage carried on by the Germans has caused the staff of the allies to deal severely with all strangers found within the lines. When two Irishmen, arrested yesterday, had proved their identity to the satisfaction of the officers, they were asked to go to the headquarters building where an automobile was drawn up with two officers, apparently French, occupying the front seat. Behind them were two supposed Gendarmes with a manacled civilian between them. The staff officer said: "This is the reason for our severity. These five men are German officers who were captured today near the firing line."

FIGHTING MEXICANS FIRE ACROSS BORDER

Citizens of Naco, Arizona, Appeal to Wilson.

Negotiations for Cessation of Warfare Between Forces of Carranza and Maytorena Said to be Under Way Now.

Naco, Sonora, Oct. 5.—Negotiations for a cessation of hostilities between the Carranza garrison of Naco under General Benjamin Hill and the besieging force of Governor Maytorena were reported today to be under way.

The fighting today was confined to a desultory fire by riflemen. The marksmanship was so erratic that residents of the adjoining American town of Naco, Ariz., appealed to President Wilson for protection. One American boy was Conference Report on Clayton Bill Agreed To.

Senator Walsh, of Montana, Replies to Criticisms of Report by Senator Reed—Vote on Measure Was 35 to 24.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The administration anti-trust programme was completed in the Senate late today when the conference report on the Clayton anti-trust bill was agreed to, 35 to 24. The Senate voted down a motion by Senator Reed, of Missouri, to re-commit the bill to conference.

Senator Reed made a motion contemplating the reinstatement of criminal penalties for violations of sections specifying methods of competition declared unlawful.

PLAN TO RAISE BIG COTTON LOAN FUND

Ratified by Bankers From the Cotton-Growing States.

AMOUNT IS $150,000,000

Plan Now Awaits Only Approval of McAdoo—Not a Plan to Buy Cotton, But to Loan on Basis of 6 Cents a Pound.

St. Louis, Oct. 5.—A plan for raising a cotton loan fund of $150,000,000, proposed by a conference of St. Louis bankers, was ratified here today by a delegation of bankers from the cotton growing states and now awaits only the approval of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and the Federal Reserve Board before it is carried into effect.

The plan, as approved "in general essence," by nine Southern bankers who had been asked by Secretary McAdoo to attend the conference with St. Louis bankers, provides for the raising of the fund by subscriptions from national and state banks, trust companies and mercantile and manufacturing companies throughout the country.

"It must be distinctly understood," declared Festus J. Wade, chairman of the St. Louis Clearing House Association and originator of the plan, "that this is not a movement for the purchase of cotton. It is simply a movement to make available a fund of $150,000,000 to loan on cotton at not to exceed six cents per pound, middling basis.

"The establishment of this fund will make the cotton crop a liquid asset, stabilize its price, and bring about normal business conditions in all lines of trade."

The amount to be raised by each financial center will be apportioned by the committee at a meeting to be held later, providing the general plan meets the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board.

Two weeks ago Mr. Wade called a conference of nine heads of St. Louis mercantile houses and banks and submitted to them his plan for raising a fund of $150,000,000 to loan in the cotton states and cotton manufacturing centers.

The plan then was submitted to Secretary McAdoo and to the Federal Reserve Board.

Telegram to McAdoo.

The Southern bankers were invited to come to St. Louis to discuss it. Tonight they sent the following telegram to Secretary McAdoo:

"The plan as laid before you and the Federal Reserve Board on Friday last to endeavor to raise a cotton loan fund of $150,000,000 today was submitted to the undersigned. After careful consideration the following resolution was passed unanimously:

"That the plans outlined by Mr. Festus J. Wade in general essence be adopted, and the details worked out later. It is believed the South will subscribe its proportion as suggested and outlined'."

Persons intimated with the progress of the plan declared tonight that Secretary McAdoo and the Federal Reserve Board were merely withholding official approval of the plan until the southern bankers had been heard from. The proposed pool would finance the movement of five million bales or a margin above the estimated surplus cotton.

SHIP WITHOUT COUNTRY HELD AT SAN FRANCISCO

Until Question of Ownership Can be Settled.

Steamer Alexander, Formerly German Owned, Reported to Have Coal and Provisions for German Warships, is Held.

San Francisco, Oct. 5.—The steamer Alexander, formerly of the Kohmos Line, is detained in the harbor here with a United States naval officer on board until questions concerning her registry can be settled with Washington. The collector of the port refused to allow the vessel to clear for Valparaiso as it was reported the Alexandria carried coal and provisions that were to be transfered to German warships.

The steamer is at anchor here without a name or a flag, but with a full cargo aboard and with a master and crew ready to put to set.

Recently she was reported sold. Ten days ago the owners applied to Washington for permission to register her as the Sacramento, under the American flag. Permission failing to come with the desired promptness, a second appeal was lodged with the collector of the port for leave to clear for Valparaiso under the German flag and the old name.

The collector replied that he must be satisfied first of the vessel's neutrality and Rear Admiral Pond placed an officer on board.

Her Release Not In Sight.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The steamship Alexandria, formerly German owned but now a ship without a country and detained by United States authorities at San Francisco, probably will not be

GERMANS GETTING CLOSER ANTWERP

Have Made Breach Through Outer Circle of Forts.

INNER CIRCLE IS NEXT

German Official Statement Reports Victory Over Russians and Capture of Thousands Near Augustowo.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—(By wireless to Sayville, L.I.)—An official report from the German army headquarters says that in the siege of Antwerp the forts of Lierre, Waelhem and Koningshoget and the intermediate redoubts with thirty guns, have been taken.

"Thus a breach has been made in the outer circle of forts," the report adds, "rendering an attack on the inner circle of forts and the town itself possible.

"Near Augustowo the third Siberian and parts of the Twenty-second Russian army corps, composing the left wing of the Russian army, on crossing the Niemen river, were defeated after a furious battle lasting two days. More than 2,000 unwounded Russians were made prisoners and a large quantity of guns and machine guns were captured."

Other press matter given out in official quarters says:

"The force of native troops from British India which recently landed at Marseilles has left that port for the northward.

bon and probably are destined to bon and probabl yare destined to transport Portuguese troops. Portugal's cooperation in the war is imminent, the mobilization of the Portuguese forces, it is believed, having been ordered on the demand of the British government.

"England is sowing mines in several parts of the North Sea and a warning to this effect has been given to neutral shipping.

"The Rumanian crown prince has been strongly rebuked for his Russophile agitations. The leaders of the Rumanian parties have declared themselves in favor of continuing the neutral policy of the Rumanian government.

"A manifest to issued by the Rumanian socialist party assumes that the neutrality of the country will be preserved.

"The government of the Netherlands has strengthened the Dutch force along the frontier districts to disarm Belgian troops when the latter cross the frontier from Antwerp."

PORTUGAL IS READY.

To Join Forces With Allies When Britain Calls Upon Her.

Washington, Oct. 5.—While no confirmation of the report from Berlin that Portugal was preparing to join forces with the allies against Germany has been received by the Portuguese legation here, the minister, Viscount De Alte, said today his country was prepared to take the step whenevr Great Britain should call upon her to do so.

A treaty of long standing between the two countries, providing for mutual protection, was reaffirmed at the outbreak of the present war, he said, and that action ratified by the Portuguese cabine t September 28. Great Britain sent a cruiser to Lisbon on that date to fire a special salute to the Portuguese flag in recognition of the treaty.

WANTS LAW ENACTED TO RESTRICT ACREAGE

Asks Governors to Convene The Legislatures.

Southeastern Food Crops Conference Adopts Resolutions for Reduction of 50 Per Cent. in Cotton Acreage in 1915.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—The Southeastern Food Products Conference adopted resolutions here today asking the governors of the cotton producing states to call immediate special sessions of their legislatures to enact laws restricting cotton acreage in 1915 to at least fifty per cent. of the acreage planted this year.

Speakers held such action necessary on account of the decreased European demand for cotton as a result of the war. It also was agreed that the problem was one for individual States to solve rather than the Federal government.

Formation of farmers' associations to aid in the enforcement of any acreage reduction laws that may be made was favored.

Other resolutions adopted recommended that the farmers in each county in every southern state hold meetings and formally petition their governors to convene the legislatures to act upon the cotton situation and asked that decreased cotton acreage be devoted to the raising of food products.

The conference will continue in session tomorrow. Eight states are represented.

In connection with the proposal to have the state legislatures convene, C. J. Haden, chairman of the conference, was instructed to request President Wilson to issue a proclamation asking the people of all cotton growing counties to meet October 17 to say whether they desire special sessions.

COUNT BERNSTORFF CALLS ON MR. BRYAN

German Ambassador Confers With Secretary of State.

HIS VISIT SIGNIFICANT?

During Half Hour Conference it is Understood Peace Treaties Already Signed by Other Nations Were Gone Over.

Wahington, Oct. 5.—The call of Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, at the State Department today, where he conferred for half an hour with Secretary Bryan aroused much speculation in diplomatic circles here tonight as to the possibility that further efforts had been set in motion by the administration, indirectly at least, to bring about peace in Europe.

Neither the Secretary nor the ambassador would discuss the purpose of the visit although it is known that the diplomat made a special trip from New York in response to a telegraphic request sent by Mr. Bryan. He left the Secretary's room burdened with copies of peace commission treaties negotiated by Mr. Bryan by various countries and is understood to have been asked to forward these promptly to Berlin.

The treaties are typical of all the peace conventions upon which Mr. Bryan has been at work, although they differ somewhat in detail. There was every reason to believe that the conference was confined entirely to a discussion of the various treaties and that the European war was mentioned only in passing, if at all.

Regarded as Significant.

It was regarded here as significant, however, that Secretary Bryan should undertake negotiations looking to the inclusion of Germany among the nations with whom the United States has made peace conventions at this time, when that country is engaged in war. Such a treaty would commit the German government to a recognition of the propriety and reasonableness of dealing with international issues by peaceful means, it was pointed out, and the suggestion was not lacking tonight that an underlying motive for the administration's effort might be the desire to smooth the way at this moment for the conference that must, in the end, terminate the war in Europe.

Negotiations of a similar nature already have been opened with Japan. It was rgued here tht, should both Japan and Germany sign peace treaties with the United States, the way would be opened for the next step, an invitation to the powers to regard peace treaties originally negotiated between each of them and the United States, as binding upon them generally with respect to each other.

Although this project can be regarded as scarcely having passed the stage of speculation, negotiations with Germany and Japan will be wtched by officials here with closest interest because of their possible bearing upon the broader question of the restoration of peace in Europe.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 5.—Governor Craig issued a pardon today for A. F. Thompson, Dare county, serving a nine years sentence in the penitentary for second degree murder. He has served five years. He was sentenced by Judge Ward who asks that the pardon be granted.

TO HASTEN OPENING OF U. S. RESERVE BANKS

Steps Taken by Federal Reserve Board.

No Time Yet Set For Call to be Issued for First Payment of Stock by Member Banks—Class "C" Directors Named.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Further steps to hasten the opening of the Federal reserve banks were taken today by the Federal Reserve Board, when it announced the class "C" or Federal directors, of the San Francisco and Dallas banks.

No time yet has been set for the call to be issued by the Comptroller of the Currency for the first payment of member banks to the capital stock of their reserve banks. The board probably will be consulted before this step is taken. No formal action has been taken yet by the board to fix the opening date for any or all the banks. Some members favor opening banks in Central Reserve cities as soon as practicable, while others are said to hold the opinion that all twelve should be opened on the same day.

Under the law the Secretary of the Treasury has authority to fix a day for opening, but it was understood the question would be formally brought before the bord soon and that Secretary McAdoo would not set a date for a few banks unless the plan was supported by the bord.

Pledges of gold to the $100,000,000, gold pool to meet American obligations to Europe have come on so rapidly that the board is confident the amount will be fully subscribed within a few days.

Designs for the new Federal reserve notes have not all been approv-

Mr. Charles Hall Davis Exonerated By The Courts of Virginia.

He Telegraphs Reply to The Tide Water Power Company's Charges.

The President of the Wilmington-Carolina Beach Railway Company received from Mr. Charles Hall Davis, of Petersburg, Va., the following telegram, which, on our responsibility and approval, we give to the public:

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 5, '14.

Mr. C. C. Chadbourn:—

President Wilmington-Carolina Beach R. R., Wilmington, N. C.

Sunday morning's "Star" with article "Relating to Mr. Chas. Hall Davis" just received. At proper time and in proper forum, I will proceed against the Tide Water and its officials for slanderous statements about me. Insist to the people of Wilmington that their attention be not diverted from the main issue by the scurrilous and underhanded tactics pursued by the Tide Water Power Company. The question to be voted on Wednesday involves the granting of franchises to a new corporation and the breaking up of a monopoly whose unfitness is demonstrated by their present methods of attack on the character of individuals and their alleged use of money to corrupt the electorate as charged by Mr. Meares. CHARLES HALL DAVIS.

It seems to be the purpose of the officials of the Tide Water Power Company to destroy, if possible, the personal character, if not his property interest, of every man who is identified with this Company's enterprise.

Mr. Charles Hall Davis is a stranger to the voters of Wilmington. He is, nevertheless, to our knowledge, a gentleman of high personal and professional standing in the City of Petersburg, Va. The charges of the Tide Water Power Company, made in the last days of this campaign, cannot be fully answered, at this late hour, for it would involve securing and publishing extended court records. The charges were determined by the Courts of Virginia, after full hearing and investigation, several years ago, and Mr. Davis was fully exonerated. The public is referred to the full Court records, at Petersburg, Va.

It is due to Mr. Davis to state that he did not seek identity with this enterprise. He was recommended to this Company by high financial authorities, as a man preeminently qualified by personal and professional experience to aid this Company in its enterprise. This Company sought Mr. Davis. At the time we associated him, we were fully advised of all the facts, which the Tide Water Power Company now partly reproduce, and we, also, upon investigation, found that he had been thoroughly vindicated of any wrong doing in connection therewith by the Courts of Virginia, in his own home City, Petersburg, Va., where he stands amongst men personally and professionally as high as any of the officials of the Tide Water Power Company stand in this City. What virtue is to a woman, honor is to a man; and the attempt by the officials of the Tide Water Power Company, in their own selfish interest, to rob a stranger of his character, whose only fault is that he has presumed to identify himself with an enterprise of this City, will be measured, we believe, in the contempt and vote of the great majority of the citizens of this City, who do not approve of "muck-raking."

We believe the judgment of the Courts of Virginia, whose duty it was to investigate and pass on the charges, and who vindicated Mr. Davis, will be accepted by an impartial public, as conclusive, rather than the uncalled for innuendoes of the officials of the Tide Water Power Company, upon their garbled extracts of the Court's proceeding—not given by it in full—in order to influence the action of our electors upon a local economic question, which should not be affected by any man's personal character.

COUNTY FAIRS IN THE STATE

Four in North Carolina This Week—Two Charters Issued—Other Raleigh News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 5.—Four county fairs are to be held in North Carolina this week, the fairs for Durham county, at Durham; Haywood county at Waynesville; Piedmont fair, at Winston-Salem, opening Tuesday and continuing through Friday and the Spruce Pine fair opening Wednesday and continuing through Friday.

The Avery county fair was held quite successfully last week.

Two charters were issued today as follows: The Carolina Baking Co., of Charlotte, capital $125,000 authorized and $200 subscribed by R. W. Miller, Geo. Wadsworth and E. Y. Crossmore for a general bakery business.

The Bungo Lumber Co., of Belhaven, capital $50,000 authorized and $1,00 subscribed by J. E. Williams and others for general lumber business.

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, who has gone to Goldsboro to spend a few days with his aged mother before returning to Washington after his address in connection with the quarter century celebration by A. & M. College, says he considers the national political situation especially auspicious for Democracy, the retention of Democratic control in the House being assured with indications that a gain of five will be made in the senate. He is enthusiastic over the record the Wilson administration has made in national and international affairs and believes there can but be overwhelming endorsement of Democracy at the polls. Mr. Daniels is much pleased with the development of the "Buy-a-bale" movement. He believes the cotton crop will certainly be protected from disaster. He declares that he wants to see the constitutional amendments carried by fifty thousand majority. He believes they will carry without doubt and urges that work for their adoption be pressed to assure the largest possible majority for every one of them.

There was observance of President Wilson's appeal for special prayers for peace by practically all the churches of Raleigh Sunday the observance being general throughout the country. In all the services there was a noticeable note of optimism that the present terrible war in Europe will work out a lasting peace and may indeed, usher in that era of peace when wars shall be no more. Dr. L. McK. Pittinger declared at The Church of The Good Shepherd that the most sickening thing about the whole terrible war condition is that Christians are fighting against Christians so that about the only safe prayer to offer is "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth and all the ends thereof as it in Heaven."

WANT TO BE HEARD.

Commercial Organizations Want a Word Before Trains Discontinued.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 5.—Commercial organizations at a number of points are filing with the Corporation Commission requests that they be given a hearing relative to the petition of the Southern Railway Company to be allowed to discontine various trains on their lines because of falling off in traffic revenue, before any final action is taken. The Commission has fixed no time for hearing yet.

GOLDSBORO PYTHIANS MEET.

Fraternal Sunday Observed—Cotton Movement, Superior Court, Etc.

Galdsboro, N. C., Oct. 5.—In accordance with a proclamation issued by Hon. J. G. Baird, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, in the domain of North Carolina, to observe Sunday, the fourth day of October, as Fraternal Sunday, to offer up a prayer that God may stay the hand of war and restore peace, Ruffin Lodge of this city invited all fraternal organizations to join them in this service at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, where a song and prayer service was held, with an address by Grand Chancellor Baird, on the "Beauties of the Brotherhood of Man."

A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of Goldsboro was recently held to consider the cotton question. What the meeting lacked in numbers it more than made up in enthusiasm and an optimistic vein was noticed throughout the proceedings.

Upon motion of Mr. J. M. Edgerton and Dr. E. C. Vitou the chair was taken by Mr. D. H. Dixon, in the absence of both the president and vice president.

The chamber discussed the cotton question in all its phases and were in favor of a reduction of acreage in 1915.

It was the sense of the members that Goldsboro should do all it could to maintain and further the friendly relations of the citizens and farmers and that it most certainly should manifest interest in the welfare of the farmers upon whose prosperity the town is built.

It was further decided that Goldsboro should assist in the wide-spread Buy-a-Bale movement and the Goldsboro Cotton Committee was authorized to take charge of the work, with authority to appoint a sub-committee to assist.

Superior Court will convene Monday, October 12th, for the trial of both criminal and civil actions. Judge F. A. Daniels will preside, and it was hoped that the new Curt house would be ready to be occupied at the above term, but due to the delay of some of the fixtures it is impossible to have the building in readiness for occupation by the above date.

The twenty-first annual convention of the Wayne County Sunday School Association will be held at Pine Forest church, four miles west of Goldsboro, Saturday and Sunday, October 10th and 11th. An interesting programme has been arranged and a great gathering of Sunday School workers is expected to be present.

GREENVILLE SEPTEMBER SALES.

Farmers Holding Better Grades for Better Prices.

Greenville, N. C., Oct. 5.—For September past the Greenville tobacco market sold near 5,000,000 pounds of the weed. The exact figures as given are 4,902,451 which averaged $10.60, which is considered a very fair price considering the quality of tobacco now being marketed. When grades and prices of this year and last year are compared it will be seen that there is not so much in the prices as some would think. Farmers are being advised to hold their good tobacco for better prices and many are doing so. Prices are getting better and are expected to be better as the season advances.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 5.—Thirty one Connecticut "little towns" today voted license and ten voted "dry." The standing in the state is now 81 for license and 87 for no license.

DANIELS TO CAMPAIGN.

Will Speak in New England, Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia.

Washington, Oct. 5.—A campaign speech-making itinerary arranged by the Democratic Congressional committee today for Secretary Daniels, includes speeches in Connecticut October 21 and 22; in New Hampshire, October 23 and 24; in Tennessee, October 13-14; Kentucky, October 15, and in Wheeling, W. Va., October 16.

Addressed Wake Forest Students for Two Services Sunday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wake Forest, N. C., Oct. 4.—Dr. B. W. Spillman, of Kinston, preached here at both morning and evening services today. At the morning service he said he was just going to preach instead of talking about Sunday Schools.

—Mr. A. J. Mitchell returned yesterday from a short business trip o Baltimore.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Chadbourn's Statement vs Good Business

Having published this statement twice in the local paper, it seems evident that the allied beach companies, of which Mr. C— is the head, considers it good political dope to foster the vote of a certain class of workmen, "if" the franchise carries, "which it won't". Unfortunately, the writer has forgotten that this class of workmen are not as of yore; their credulity can no longer be worked upon, and now-a-days they read between the lines.

From Mr. Chadbourn's own statement we gather the fact that he is first a lumberman, and his identity in development schemes, "and his interests surely must be large," are a secondary consideration. From his standpoint of a lumberman, let's see if his development companies, especially the one concerning Wilmington Beach, is a paying proposition.

We will assume the fact that his company has sold 300 lots; "as a matter of fact they have not." Now 200 of these lots have been sold away from Wilmington, and 100 of these have never seen their property, and it is safe to say that 60 of these purchasers will fall down on their payments. Fully 90 per cent, or, roughly speaking, 220 purchasers have openly admitted that they bought this property for investment, solely on the representations of the agents of this Company, and not for building purposes. This would leave 20 houses for Mr. Chadbourn to furnish the lumber for, provided he had a monopoly, "which he has not," 20 houses of the class that are generally built on the beaches would require about 300 thousand feet, and if Mr. C— sold all of this at present current prices his profit would not pay for the oil that lubricates his machinery. Evidently, it is not profit on the lumber that interests him, but his Company is disposing of sand dunes and mud flats at $3,000 to $4,000 an acre. As a matter of fact, the W. B. Co. have erected since it opened up, nearly two years ago, about 100 yards of six-foot board walk and built two rough, barn-like structures.

Five hundred dollars should cover the entire cost of these improvements, the smallest part of which is labor. We do know that there have been three small houses built at C.-H., and several worked over, and if Mr. Chadbourn had sold all this lumber for both beaches, his profit would not have been sufficient to buy a side of lace leather. We venture the assertion that Mr. C. has sold within the past five years more lumber at Wrightsville, Sea Gate, Winter Park, and the other developments adjacent to the T. W. P. Co. than he can reasonably hope to sell to his beach investments within the next 10 years.

Mr. Chadbourn's article may impress a few men like Jos. Bryan, and for that reason we would like Mr. Bryan to inquire and see if it is a fact that foreign labor did the work at Carolina Beach, in one instance at least, both carpenters and painters, and how many Union Men were employed at both beaches. Mr. Bryan also knows that what labor is going to do at present is what counts, and not what they are going to do 10 years hence. I would call his attention to the fact that voting a franchise on Second, Sixth and several other streets that Mr. Bryan is now trying to keep them from having work by bottling up the City with a franchise that the wildest speculator can see no way of putting over for the next five years. Think this over, friend; don't let us be fooled all the time. "Results count."

WHAT TURNING ON THE LIGHT HAS DONE.

When the Tide Water Power Company promised to turn on the light it was with the feeling of confidence that the citizens of Wilmington would weigh the facts presented to them and would form sound conclusions. We felt that this was a test of the clear-sightedness of the community, and we felt that it was the only method which could be used to counteract the "grapevine rumors," many of which were slanderous in nature and without foundation, which were circulated by those desirous of getting an option on a franchise which, if granted, and if successfully used, would prove ruinous to the Tide Water Power Company. We have not stopped to answer many of these street corner rumors, because we felt they would kill themselves by their absurdity, and there were more vital things to bring to the attention of the public.

We gave some of the fundamental reasons why Carolina Beach, which was started 27 years ago, did not become the great resort which Wrightsville Beach has become. It was pointed out that Carolina Beach has always been a vigorous competitor; that the Tide Water Power Company has no monopoly as a resort, and has declined to take advantage of the opportunity to secure such a monopoly.

It has been shown that the Carolina Beach interests have hardly spent as much of their own cash on their developments as the Tide Water Power Company pays in taxes every year to the City of Wilmington; and that the underlying motive of all this attack on the Tide Water Power Company has been with a view to enabling these interests to sell lots.

To carry out these plans required the obtaining of a very dangerous franchise from the City Council which it was hoped that the voters would confirm.

A direct influence on the political machinery of Wilmington, through representation of the parties interested, was referred to, and the fact that the City Charter did not contemplate action of this kind.

A wide difference was shown between the requirements which former boards of aldermen thought necessary for protection to the City and those allowed to pass without scrutiny by the present City Council.

It was indicated that the Tide Water Power Company had offered to co-operate with the Carolina Beach interests, both in helping them to build a line and also in offering them trackage rights into the city and through to the depot, if they desired, even though this meant aiding a development which would in a measure divide traffic with the Company's present lines.

The dangers of the franchise asked for were outlined in detail, and the opinion of outside experts given that it was the "most dangerous" franchise that had ever been asked for in the United States.

The City Attorney was not allowed to give consideration to the proposed franchise and to recommend such safeguards as the City had a right to expect.

It was pointed out that the present street railways of Wilmington were constructed and have been operated under the terms of an exclusive franchise, and that a large amount of capital obtained through Northern investors has been brought into Wilmington based upon the value of this exclusive franchise. For Wilmington people, after having received the benefits of this capital, to repudiate this exclusive franchise, would be to block the channels which would furnish a great deal more capital.

It was made clear that nearly all of the first investors in Wilmington public utilities lost their money; and that the combined interests from the beginning until the present time have received not half as much return for their investment as they would if they had invested in 6% mortgages, which would have been without risk. Also the profit made has not been more than the Company would be entitled to if allowed a reasonable margin of profit on the money which it has borrowed for investment in this community. The question was asked if any merchant in Wilmington denied the propriety and the right of making such a profit, and there has been no negative answer.

The protection which the citizens have in the matter of rates and service through the control of the Corporation Commission has been made plain.

It has been shown that there is no advantage in permitting the Carolina Beach interests to try to bring in capital, as against having the Tide Water Power Company continue to bring it in, as heretofore, when they had an assured opportunity of bringing in $1,400,000.00 within the next five to seven years. This money, properly expended, could make Wrightsville Beach pre-eminently the great resort of the South Atlantic Coast, in addition to taking care of all of the needs of the growth of the City of Wilmington.

We have pointed out the error in the idea that competition between Public Service corporations is a good thing; and have shown that the trend of public opinion in the most advanced communities is against this idea. The losses fall eventually on the city and the citizens.

We have shown the fallacy of the attempt to discredit the financial success of the Tide Water Power Company, and how the figures were juggled in order to make the showing which the parties used in trying to create prejudice.

The methods used by the Wilmington Beach Corporation in selling its property and the claims by which a credulous public has been induced to invest in lots, were outlined; and it was shown, first, that the reputation of Wrightsville Beach was used to boost their property; second, an attempt was made to discredit Wrightsville Beach; and, finally, the houses built on Wrightsville Beach were used as illustration for Wilmington Beach, accompanied by claims which were 50% short of the truth.

Then followed a much briefer and more moderate reference to Mr. Chas. E. Grenamyer than we feel that the public is entitled to, from the data which we have at hand; but it must be recognized that in making up facts of this kind only statements must be made which can be proven in court. We feel that we are in a position to satisfy any one, even the directors of the Fidelity Company, that Mr. C. E. Greenamyer, General Manager of that Company, would be a particularly dangerous man to entrust with a speculative franchise. Some of his friends have apparently been incensed; but future events will show even to the most skeptical, that this was a duty which we owed to ourselves and to the public.

We have shown the outcome in a contest for competitive franchises, which has just culminated in Richmond. It is a demonstration that no advantage is to be gained under such conditions.

In this connection it was pointed out that the way to invite Northern capital to the community was not to harass the Northern capital already in the community and in the course of being brought to the community.

If the franchise were confirmed it would tie up the streets of the City for from two to five years, and prevent progress.

We considered it right that the public should know something of the character of Mr. Chas. Hall Davis, upon whom these parties rested their hopes of securing capital. As in the case of Mr. Greenamyer, we have said little about Mr. Davis and rested it upon the court records, because of the legal necessity of doing this. Further investigations can be made by any one who is interested, and we feel that we have said enough, but not too much.

There is probably enough material, certainly if we should attempt to answer unfounded rumors which have been circulated by irresponsible persons, to fill a number of articles, but we appreciate the consideration given by the public to what has been said. We are glad that the election is to be held tomorrow, and hope that every registered voter will realize that it is his vote that counts. We want a full and intelligent expression of opinion.

The stockholders of the Tide Water Power Company are citizens, many of whom have resided in Wilmington all of their lives, and some have been active in helping to forward the interests of the City. They feel that the Tidewater Power Company's record is one that ought to commend itself to any community; and unless the progressive and successful enterprises in the community are encouraged by its citizens, the community itself must suffer stagnation. They feel that this is a question in which the interests of all of the citizens and the Tide Water Power Company are mutual. They believe that the verdict at the polls will be based upon intelligent consideration of these matters, rather than upon prejudices which have been awakened by claims that great things could be done for the City by interests who have not the means and can not, under the present conditions and through the channels proposed, hope to obtain the means to put into effect their visionary plans.

In conclusion, we must say that the Tide Water Power Company has the hope of doing much greater things, than it has been able to do in the past, and it believes that its friends in the community greatly outnumber those who are opposed to its policy. The Compnay believes that this election is the "Acid Test," and that the Company will stand the test. Very respectfully,

TIDE WATER POWER CO.

Congressman Godwin Favors The Amendments and State-Wide Primary—Wants Action for Cotton Growers.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, Oct. 5.—The eighth annual convention of the North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, South Coralina, Delaware and the District of Columbia postmasters convened here today with about fifteen or twenty North Carolinians present for the opening session.

H. McL. Green, of Wilmington, and R. D. Douglass, of Greensboro, took a leading part in the discussions this afternoon. Other men from the State who participated in the speech-making were O. F. Crowson, of Burlington, and Dr. Bradshaw, of High Point. Among the Tar Heel mail handlers who were seen on the floor were: R. D. Douglass, Greensboro; H. McL. Green, of Wilmington; O. F. Crowson, of Burlington; J. C. Harris, of Thomasville; J. D. Bivins, of Albemarle; W. D. Laroque, of Kinston; J. M. McCracken, of Graham; W. C. Hall, of Black Mountain; Robert Galloway, of Winston-Salem; William Paul, of Washington; G. L. Whitford, Franklin; O. A. Sniper, Rocky Mount, and O. K. Holden, of Wake Forest.

The convention is to last three days and a royal good time is promised by the Washington committee on entertainment.

Godwin For Amendments.

Representative Godwin, who has been ill at his home, returned to Washington today.

Mr. Godwin says he is opposed to any adjournment of Congress until it is definitely decided whether anl legislation can be enacted to help the cotton situation. Mr. Godwin also states that he is in favor of all of the constitutional amendments and for the State-wide primary.

Tom Heflin, the greatest campaign orator in the South, will make a speech at Salisbury Thursday. Representative Doughton will be on hand also.

DEATH OF MR. PEELE.

Loss of Good Citizen Mourned at Trinity—The Tombs Initiates.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., Oct. 4.—The Trinity College community was saddened this week at the news of the death of Mr. Andrew Peele, father of Headmaster W. W. Peele, of the Trinity Park School, which occurred at his home yesterday afternoon. Prof. Peele has been at his father's bedside for several days.

Mr. Peele had five sons to attend Trinity College, four of whom have graduated, and the fifth son, Raymond, was a member of the Sophomore class here last year. Those graduating are Jonathan Peele, of the class of 1900, D. D. Peele, of the class of 1901; W. W. Peele, at present Headmaster of Trinity Park School, 1903; Luther Peele, of the class of 1907.

The Tombs, a fraternal organization of Trinity College, amused the people in the business section of the city for several hours Wednesday afternoon with the customary antics and pranks of the annual initiation ceremonies. The Tombs consists entirely of juniors and seniors and graduates of the college, and the annual initiation, which is the most elaborate of any society in these parts, is one of the most important features of the organization. The initiation closed with a banquet in the hall of the Commonwealth Club yesterday evening. Both old and new members were present as well as a number of graduate student members, and the occasion was a most enjoyable one. J. A. Warlick, Jr., officiated as toastmaster, and B. H. Siler, C. R. Bagley, R. A. Whitaker, S. S. Alderman, W. H. Muse, Jr., and other old members responded to toasts.

LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION FOR LENOIR COUNTY.

May be Launched at Meeting at Kinston Thursday for Purpose.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 5.—Prominent farmers here are discussing the starting of a live stock association for Lenoir county. A meeting will be held in the court house on Thursday to formulate the plans for such an organization. The proposed association will have as its purpose the promotion of the live stock industry in the county by means of better and more extensive breeding. Agents of the United States Department of Agriculture here are expected to lend their aid as long as they are in the vicinity.

The production of better beef and dairy cattle has been made easy by the work of tick eradication, which has been undergoing for the past few months, and when the quarantine is lifted early in 1915 a fresh start in the industry may be had without danger from tick infection, which has long been a bane to the stock raisers. There are big possibilities in cattle breeding in this section. Government experts have said that once the planters produce their winter feed, Lenoir county can become a center for animal husbandry. Summer grazing facilities are adequate, or can be made so without difficulty, and an increased production of grain and better winter housing are all that are needed for the success of the industry.

PENNSYLVANIA GOVERNO WITHDRAWS REQUISITION

Says Fact do Not Warrant Taking Mr. Greenamyer to That State.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 5.—Governor Craig today sent back to the Governor of Pennsylvania all papers in connection with the requisition that the Governor of Pennsylvania made on the Governor of North Carolina for Chas. E. Greenamyer, president of the Fidelity Trust Company and other enterprises at Wilmington, charging that he was wanted there for embezzlement.

The Governor of Pennsylvania wrote Governor Craig that if facts that he now has had been in his possession and verified at the time he was asked to issue the requisition, he would not have done so. He did not go into details, but simply requested that the requisition and accompanying papers be returned unhonored as he desired to withdraw them.

"ONE WEDGE DRIVES ANOTHER."

So continued advertising will surely drive home your argument to the person you are trying to convince.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

When signing the petition, this morning published by the Tide Water Power Company, I did so under the impression that an effort was being made to get Council to re-hear the question of certain streets sought to be used by both companies. Upon reflection, I have come to the conclusion that that would be a matter for adjustment by the State Corporation Commission. It was furthermost from my mind to make myself a party to assist a corporation or any one else which has since grown bold in its attempted justification o f MONOPOLY, and I shall, accordingly, vote for the franchise.

Severe Blood Troubles Vanish

With Magic Effect, Great Remedy Makes Disease Disappear.

At almost any drug store you may obtain S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, and you then have the veritable wizard that makes all blood troubles vanish. Your stomach takes kindly to S. S. S., it rushes into your blood, is a purifying wave, makes the liver, kidneys, bladder and skin work in harmony; stops accumulations that have caused rheumatism, catarrh, swollen glands, sore throat and skin eruptions.

Just as food makes blood, so does S. S. S. follow the process of digestion to stimulate natural secretions to protect us against the ravages of disease germs. We are well aware of the fact that these germs are apt to be latent within us to break forth in violent eruptions of the skin whenever the system is in a low state of resistance. And it is to both prevent these eruptions or to get rid of them that Nature gave us such an ally as S. S. S. It is purely vegetable, contains no mercury, and yet it overcomes those serious troubles for which mercury has been employed for ages. In every community are people who know this to be true. They owe to S. S. S. their recovery. Get a bottle today. Refuse all substitutes. Read the folder around the bottle that tells of the wonderful work being done by the medical department in assisting users of S. S. S. "Tut! Tut!! Tut!!!"—President Wilson. That's about right.

Fall styles are prettier than ever, else those who wear them are.

A good dose of old fashioned Democracy would be good for this country.

The South ought to make felt mattresses for the world. We have the cotton with which to make the felt.

The South ought to make all the cotton sacks used in America. The reason is too apparent to be mentioned.

Watch 'em look just as pretty in a cotton gown as they do when it's silk. Men don't know the difference anyhow.

The tyranny of the majority of any party will cause the minority to insurge. The minority insists on being respected.

The South should not only produce most of what it eats but manufacture nearly everything it wears in the way of cotton apparel.

An Austrian colonel says "you feel nothing while in battle." On the contrary you'd feel like you would rather not be where you are.

None but the old linger and look back down the "corriror of time." The young look forward to the enchanting visit as always ahead.

Quoth the Jacksonville Times-Union: "Did you ever notice that some women have a special telephone voice." Yet, and how about those wirless eyes?

The Siler City Grit says: "One man at Carthage has this season bought 700 bushels of scuppernongs, the price being $1.10, and shipped them to a big winery at Norfolk." A good opportunity for a grape juice factory is lying around loose in Moore county.

Italy is reported to have seized the port of Avlona on the Adriatic sea. Aviona always looked good to Italy, so she concluded that while all the other duffers were busy fighting she might as well stake off a claim on the opposite side of the sea. Aviona used to be in Old Turkey but it belongs to Albania and the probability is that the warlike Albanians will have something to say.

Prominent and progressive farmers of Lenoir county are to hold a meeting at Kinston this week to discuss and plan if not perfect the organization of a livestock association for the county, for the purpose of promoting the raising of more and better cattle and other stock in that county. That's a move in the right direction. All Eastern North Carolin farmers might do worse than to follow the example of those of Lenoir.

THE COTTON PROBLEM AT A DIFFERENT ANGLE.

We can't see how any institution which was knocked out itself by the war in Europe can avail in rescuing cotton from the effects of the same cause. For instance, let us take a notable case of cause and effect in the suspension of the New York Cotton Exchange and the disastrous decline in cotton. War in Europe was the cause and business paralysis was the effect. The same cause affected both. The Exchange and cotton both went down together. Cotton declined on account of the war and not on account of the suspension of the Exchange. The Exchange suspended on account of war and cotton had declined $10 a bale before the Exchange went out of commission. Yet the New York Journal of Commerce, a great economic authority, reasons it out this way:

"Not even the prospects of a very large cotton crop justify the efforts of cotton growers to procure legislative regulation of the planting. The crops to be planted are not to be regulated by night riders or by legislation; efforts in both directions will produce far more harm than good. If planters find cotton too cheap this year they will plant less next year, and that is all the restriction that is practicable. If they will plant more corn and raise more hogs they will do a good deal to make themselves independent of vicissitudes in the cotton market.

"The immediate difficulty of the cotton growers in marketing their crop is the closing of the exchanges and the exclusion of the whole speculative element. That is what they have been clamoring for for years, and now they have it they do not like the consequences, and probably attribute them to every cause except the right one. Of course they hope that if they can convince consumers now that there will be little or no cotton grown next year the present prices will advance.

"But they can't get higher prices for cotton by that means. No Congress or legislature has any authority to tell a farmer that he must not plant cotton or tobacco or corn. But this hope of raising the present prices is the only excuse for agitating now a restriction of cotton planting more than six months hence.

"There is no certainty that the surplus will be seriously large. If the world's population can get cotton cloth at about the customary prices, the consumption of cotton goods is likely to be large, with the possible exception of the people actually in the war zone, and that is not a very large percentage of the cotton wearers of the world. Even those people have got to wear something, and cotton is cheaper than wool. Not many people are actually going naked on account of the war. If it be true that one of the belligerent governments is in our market for a large supply of cotton blankets, we feel sorry for the unfortunate soldiers who will have nothing warmer to protect them during the coming winter, but we must also recognize an additional demand for the staple of which we have an unusually large supply.

"We are hoping to get a great deal of the markets hitherto supplied by the belligerents. If they have been in possession of those markets it is because their prices are considerably lower than ours. The markets of Asia and South America are enormous consumers of cotton cloths. It has been often pointed out in our commercial reports that our cotton cloths are too good for those markets. The consumers recognize their superiority to the goods they are in the habit of getting from Europe, but they can't afford them. Now if we happen to have an extraordinarily large cotton crop, resulting in low prices, our capacity for producing cotton goods cheap enough to sell in Asia and South America will be greatly increased.

"If we want the cotton goods trade of the world we must make low prices. The cheap staple gives us the opportunity to do that. After South America and Asia get used to our goods they may be willing to buy them when the prices are a little above those of European goods; they may realize that the quality is worth the price. In that case we shall have made a great addition to our foreign trade. But in getting into those markets a cheap staple is of incalculable importance to us, and next spring we can tell far better than now whether we have so large a surplus of cotton on hand that a curtailment of production is important."

Most of that is true, but it is an argument to the advantage of the manufacturer and to the disadvantage of the grower. Economically, a great cotton crop at low prices means wealth for the United States in an industrial way but it means ruin for the cotton producers. We can't get around the fact that a 15,000,000 or 16,000,000 bale crop means wealth in one way, but it means, nevertheless, loss for a class less able to bear it.

As a whole, the country is very fortunate in having a big cotton crop, but the growers are unfortunate that such is an economical fact. The South's effort is directed towards preventing a loss on production. It is the purpose to save the producers, but it is extremely problematical whether opening the Cotton Exchange will help them. The Exchange neither buys nor sells cotton. It deals in options. After all options are sold, high or low, the 16,000,000 bale crop would still be in sight as a spot proposition. Supply and demand would regulate the spot price regardless of options. We have an idea that the bears would invade the Exchange, with the result that they would bet low while the South would be sure to bet high. It is safe to predict that the producers would still be losers and that option buyers on the bull side would turn up with an additional loss for the South as a merely speculative proposition. If that should be the case it would create two losing elements in the South and mean a double loss from a productive and commercial standpoint. The chances are too great, if it is not probable.

It must be remembered that the price of cotton has been disastrously affected because the war cut off practically nine-tenths of the foreign demand. If the New York Exchange can restore that demand it would help the price of cotton. The price collapsed, however, while the exchange was open, and we fear the result, unless the exchange can accomplish the impossible—remove the cause, still unfortunately existing.

THE STANDPATTER'S GAME.

Senator William Alden Smith, of Michigan, insists that the North Carolina cotton milling industry is not prosperous because of the Democratic tariff. He refers to Gen. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, as an authority, but there is doubt whether General Carr blamed the tariff without taking the present war conditions into consideration.

Anyhow, most of the North Carolina mills are running, tariff or no tariff, war or no war, but that was not the case in 1907. There was no European war in 1907, but there is one now. If the mills are not prosperous now there is a good reason which Senator Smith prefers to overlook. He prefers to make political capital out of it, in spite of the fact that the war has disturbed all the world's economic system. Meanwhile, the war has stifled the cotton manufacturing industry in Europe, has cut off cotton goods imports for this country and it s keeping European manufacturers out of the markets of the world. The war places the American market absolutely in the hands of American manufacturers. It gives them a chance to go into South America and Europe and sell goods in competition with countries who are handicapped by war. If under those conditions, the American cotton manufacturing industry does not get a move on it, there must be something the matter with American manufacturers themselves. Is it a lack of manufacturing genius? Is it a lack of commercial initiative?

With war preventing foreign competition in the markets of South America, in the Orient and at home, why are the standpatters seeking to restore tariff laws that will enable them to pile up wealth at the expense of the people? In a country where the cotton grows, what is the matter with a manufacturing system, which, according to Mr. Smith, has to depend upon government aid before it can do business?

This is an economic conundrum which the protectionists ought to explain to people who are tired being the victims of special privilege for a class.

The people want the cotton mills and all other American industries to succeed and prosper. Why is it that they appear in the attitude of pauper industries that depend on government aid? We know why groups and classes long for privilege, but we do not know why Americans cannot depend on themselves instead of panhandling the government in an era so full of opportunities as this.

The cotton mills were shut down hard and fast under a high tariff in 1907, and they have never fully recovered from that period of depression. If they are operating now while nine European nations are at war, what should their prosperity be if the world were at peace and commerce was not paralyzed? The Republicans are trying to take advantage of this disastrous condition of war to make political capital, but is there not enough intelligence in this country to see through the game?

CATTLE RAISING IN THE SOUTH.

The agricultural department of Louisiana has become convinced that cattle raising can be made a source of wealth to the State and proposes to demonstrate the fact to the farmers. With that end in veiw the State has bought a plantation to be used as a demonstration and experimental live stock farm. Louisiana does not propose to be tempted by the present high price of sugar to stake its future either on sugar or rice or cotton. She sees another opportunity and is going to prove that cattle and stock raising is profitable as any other farm industry.

The tSate tsock farm will grow pasture products, forage and grain to feed its cattle and stock, and by converting such farm products into live stock, an economical truth is to be proven outright. The Knoxville Sentinel is of the oponion that if Louisnana can introduce the cattle raising industry, Tennessee certainly ought to follow suit. That progressive paper says:

"If Louisiana expects cattle, pigs, sheep, horses and mules to be sources of wealth, all the more so should Tennessee embark confidently in this field of production. Our hills, with their fine nature pastures and our fields adapted to grasses, alfalfa, clover, peas, corn, oats, wheat and silage, invite Tennessee to foodstuff production, and above all the livestock raising. Our climate favors the grazing of cattle three-fourths of the year. Besides corn, oats and silage, we have for winter feeding access to the cottonseed mills, which produce cottonseed hulls and cottonseed meal. Too much cottonseed meal and too many hulls have been exported to fatten Danish and German and Dutch cottle and to produce butter for the British market. We should consume these feeds and utilize their fertilizer here."

Tennessee used to be a great cattle and stock raising State. Old timers can remember the day when hog drovers used to drive thousands of fine hogs into the cotton country and also invade North Carolina and South Carolina with great droves of fine mules. She lapsed into a cotton producing State and her stock interests declined. Under a new system, providing pasturage and new feed crops, Tennessee will have a better opportunity that ever in the stock industry. The Sentinel throws out sufficient hints as to that. The South is shipping cattle feed to Europe instead of utilizing all its own resources for making butter, cheese and meat products.

What is said of Tennessee applies to North Carolina. The Agricultural Department of this State already has demonstrated that cattle can be raised and fattened on a highly profitable basis in North Carolina. A recent bulletin, referred to some time ago by the Star, furnishes all the facts and proof.

OUR ECONOMIC WASTE.

It is false economy for North Carolina or any other Southern State to produce the raw material and ship it away to be converted into the more valuable finished product at a distance. That is a wasteful custom and the sooner we stop it the greater will become the wealth of the country.

There are many cases in point, involving a variety of products and materials, but we want to refer to one which we seize on to by reason of a news item in the Wautauga (N. C.) Democrat. Here is the item from that paper:

"Messrs. James Ray and Roscoe Little passed through town Monday with a large bunch of fine, fat cattle, bound for Shouns, Tenn., from which point they shipped them to the Northern markets. Such cattle will surely bring a handsome return to the shippers."

This is an instance showing that North Carolina produces fine beef cattle and ships them on the hoof to the Northern markets. There is a great demand in the State for beef, but it is shipped away as raw material and comes back to us at four times the price as a finished product. The State loses money on a transaction like that. It is true, the shipper gets a "handsome return" but the Northern packers who sell the beef get a much handsomer return. They get it to the disadvantage of North Carolina beef consumers. Those Wautauga cattle converted into beef in North Carolina and sold to consumers at home would leave four or five times as much money in the State as when they are shipped away on the hoof and sold back to us as a commercial product.

Western North Carolina needs a packing house, or the cities of the State need large abatoirs with cold storage capacity for taking care of meat carcases. When we turn our attention to these things, we will soon observe that we are pursuing a course that is wasteful as a matter of commercial economy.

We don't have to depend upon the uncertainty of cotton when we utilize all our own resources and diversify our agriculture and domestic industries as well.

CURRENT COMMENT.

If all the Russian and Belgian tales of awful slaughter among the Germans were true it is safe to say that the Kaiser would not now have enough soldiers left to guard a cattle train. In this wholesale killing the Belgic imagination seems to have been especially lively from the very start of the war, but the Petrograd press bureau has not been far behind. Its stories of awful massacres of Austrians have been in the highest degree picturesque and absurd. Berlin has carried off the palm for truthfulness—a point of German superiority that deserves recognition.—Philadelphia Record.

The war in Europe is not going to put the Mecklenburg county fair out of business. The fair will be held at the same old stand and with the same old style and finish. Premium lists are being sent out and posters adorn all roads. Those in charge feel confident that the fair is going to be the best ever. One thing about it, it is going to be a clean fair, as it was last year. That means a whole lot to ladies and children. It will be an affair which every one can inspect thoroughly without embarrassment. Exhibits should be more attractive this year than before and certain it is that the amusements secured are going to make it worth while. Better lay your plans to attend the fair.—Charlotte News.

Southern Congressmen are now demanding a Government loan of $450,000,000 to enable that section to carry its cotton along for higher prices and a better market. Are they not overworking this calamity cry a trifle? Is it true that the South is suffering above all other sections from the war embargo? Few Northern railroads show increases in gross earnings since the war began. But reports of current business on Southern railroads in most cases show material increases in gross earnings from a year ago, while in the case of the great Southern system these earnings are only a trifle below last year and better than two years ago. The one Northern railroad to report notable gains in earnings over a year ago—the Illinois Central—operates largely in the South.—New York World.

To plant no cotton at all next year would be action radical enough, surely. But what of all the plans to extend cotton manufacturing in this country? The New Orleans conference of planters and business men is not going to be a sleepy affair at all events. A half dozen propositions for meeting the market strigency caused by the European war are being urged. The "buy a bale" movement is the one which has attracted most attention in the North. The passing of an entire crop might, as urged, stamp out the boll weevil pest. It might also stamp out several other things which could not be well spared. It cannot reasonably be expected, however, that the Southern planters are going to raise a crop for which there is but a limited market. They have their livelihood to consider. As the greatest cotton-producing country in the world, the South's action will have a wide effect. —Buffalo Commercial.

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY.

New Remedy That Heals Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., sold hundreds of jars of Hokara, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara should give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases should be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal sized jar today at the very low price of 25 cents, and with every package goes J. Hicks Bunting's guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory.

GREENAMYER CASE IS STRUCK FROM RECORD

Dismissed Yesterday at Pittsburg, Wires Attorney

Loughlin Says Tidewater Power Company Was Behind Arrest—Attorney General and Prosecutor Requested Dismissal.

Telegraphic annopncement was received here yesterday afternoon from Pittsburg, Pa., that the case there against Mr. Chas. E. Greenamyer, of this city, charging him with larceny and embezzlement, had been dismissed at the request of the district attorney and the prosecutor, and that the matter had been stricken from the records. The announcement came in the form of a telegram to Mr. Greenamyer from his attorney at Pittsburg. Mr. Greenamyer, at the time the telegram was received, was on his way back to Wilmington from a trip to Washington and Pittsburg.

Another interesting development in the case yesterday was a statement by Jos. J. Loughlin, secretary and treasurer of the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company, in which organization Mr. Greenamyer is interested through his connection with the Wilmington Beach Corporation, that the Tidewater Power Company, of this city, which is seeking to prevent at the special election to be held tomorrow, the ratification of a street railway franchise over certain local streets, granted to the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company by City Council, was the moving spirit in having an old indictment agianst Mr. Greenamyer pushed, the action culminating in his arrest here last Tuesday as a fugitive from justice. Mr. Loughlin made the above statement following a conference with A. E. L. Leckie, Esq., of Washington, D. C., vice president and general counsel for the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company, who arrived in the city yesterday morning, and Herbert McClammy, Esq., local counsel for the company.

The telegram received yesterday afternoon stating that the case against Mr. Greenamyer had been dismissed, was addressed to Mr. Greenamyer, and was as follows:

"Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 5, 1914.

"C. E. Greenamyer, Wilmington, N. C.

"Case against you dismissed at the request of the district attorney and the prosecutor, the latter to pay costs. Record is clear. "JNO. N. PIATT,

"Attorney."

In making public the charge that the Tidewater Power Company was responsible for Mr. Greenamyer's arrest, and not the Pennsylvania Underwriters' Company, of Pittsburg, Pa., Mr. Loughlin submitted a letter from Mr. S. L. Brown, general manager of the Pennsylvania Underwriters' Company, and several telegrams received by Mr. Greenamyer before he left the city Saturday evening.

The letter from Mr. Brown to Mr. Greenamyer is as follows:

"I am just in receipt of your communication, advising me of your arrest, and I wish to inform you that I am as much shocked at this action as you are. For some time past we have been receiving requests for information regarding you from Wilmington people, and not long ago a gentleman from that city called upon such a mission. He was interested in a railway and power company of Wilmington, but I have mislaid his card and am unable to locate him at this time.

"We believe that our differences had been amicably settled, and it is my personal opinion that had it not been for a gross misunderstanding, an indictment would have never been taken."

Mr. Loughlin said that following Mr. Greenamyer's arrest here last Tuesday he wired a friend, Thos. J. Thurby, of Pittsburg, as follows:

"Will be in Pittsburg next day or two answer indictment secured two years ago. It has been used against me here. Pittsburg company guarantees not prosecute. Will need Five Thousand bond and good attorney. Get Roddy Marshall or his equal. Don't fail have ready my arrival possibly Saturday. Answer."

In answer to this he received the following reply the same day:

"Have Attorney Piatt, Frick Building. Bond ready now."

The next day, Mr. Loughlin says, he received a night letter from Mr. Thurby as follows:

"Have done all in my power to learn name of party who pressed indictment. District attorney's office would not mention his name, but it was an official of the Tidewater Power Co. You no doubt will know his name. I am in position now to have this struck from records. Come as soon as possible."

Mr. Greenamyer was arrested here last Tuesday, the warrant being issued by Justice Harriss, under the fugitive from justice act, upon receipt of telegraphic advices from Pittsburg. Mr. Greenamyer was placed under $10,000 bond for his appearance before Justice Harriss yesterday at noon, but in view of later developments, and upon motion of Jno. D. Bellamy, Esq., Justice Harriss yesterday continued the hearing until Thursday at noon.

When the case is called Thursday Mr. Greenamyer's attorneys will probably move for dismissal, which formality will doubtless write the finale to the occurance.

MRS. JAS. P. WHYTE DEAD.

Wife of Former Resident Died at St. Josephs, Mo., Sept. 30.

Many friends in this city will be deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Jas. P. Whyte, who with her husband, then local manager for Swift & Co., made Wilmington her home for several years. The news of her death reached here yesterday, through the offices of Swift & Co., in a belated report. The advices received gave no details, other than that the wife of Mr. Jas. P. Whyte, manager at various times at the Richmond, Wilmington and Norfolk branches of the company, died on September 30th.

It is presumed that Mrs. Whyte died at St. Josephs, Mo., where Mr. Whyte has been stationed recently as manager of the Swift branch house there.

Mr. and Mrs. Whyte were both well known during the period of their residence in Wilmington. Mr. Whyte was teacher of the Business Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist church, and took a prominent part in every movement looking to the advancement of the community. His wife was a woman of noble Christian character. Their many friends here will hear with deep regret of her death, and sympathize tenderly with Mr. Whyte in the great loss he has sustained.

FRANCHISE FIGHT NEARS END

Weird Campaign Closes Today and Election Will be Held Tomorrow. Meetings Last Night.

One of the warmest and most weird political battles ever waged in the city of Wilmington wil be fought out at the polls tomorrow when a special election will be held to give the voters of the community the opportunity of passing on, for ratification or rejection, a street railway franchise over certain local streets, granted by City Council to the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company, which plans to operate a city system in connection with a suburban line from Wilmington to Carolina and Wilmington beaches.

Lined up against the new company and its supporters has been the Tidewater Power Company and those who believe that no other street railway company should be given a franchise in Wilmington. The fight has been on for more than a month now, and it has developed into one of the most heated campaigns the city has ever been subject to. Partisanship has been born and waxed fat on the issues involved, and the workers for the two corporations have canvassed the city from end to end in search of additional votes.

The advertising columns of the local newspapers have been freely employed in the battle for public favor, and charges, counter charges and personalities have been flung about in the mad scramble for the support of the ballot wielder.

Open air meetings were held last night by both sides. The Tidewater's supporters held a meeting at Fourth and Swann streets, where speeches were delivered by Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., and a number of other citizens.

At Fifth and Brunswick streets the W. & C. B. Company's representatives held an open air meeting. Woodus Kellum, Esq., Mr. C. W. Stewart, A. E. L. Leckie, Esq., of Washington, D. C., and Herbert McClammy, Esq., delivered addresses. The Hanover Concert Band furnished music for the occasion. Councilman T. W. Wood, who was in the audience, was called upon for a few words. He repeated his now famous "Jack Rabbit" story, much to the amusement of the crowd.

Both sides will hold open air meetings again this evening. The W. & C. B. Company announces a meeting to be held at Fifth and Castle streets. The Tidewater did not announce the location of its meeting.

A. E. L. Leckie, Esq., of Washington, D. C., vice president and general counsel for the W. & C. B. Company, arrived in the city yesterday morning to remain until the election is over. Chas. Hall Davis, Esq., of Petersburg, Va., also general counsel for the new company, was detained by an important case in court there, it was stated, but would come on today if possible for him to get away.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT Y. M. C. A. LAST NIGHT

Reports Showed That Teams Are Doing Some Hard Work.

An enthusiastic meeting of the membership teams of the Young Men's Christian Association was held on the second floor of the building last evening at 6:15 o'clock, when supper was served. Reports showed that the workers have done some hard work and that they are determined that the association must not be handicappel in carrying out the splendid plans as outlined for the fall and winter by failure to secure the desired number of members to carry on the work.

The names of many who have not paid their dues for the ensuing year were given out to the different teams and the workers will call on them today.

The Board of Directors in a special meeting yesterday authorized the Membership committee to meet the present depressed financial conditions in the city by making the membership dues payable on very easy terms and with this added incentive the committee hopes to reach many boys and young men who have not already joined the association.

NEGRO WOMAN SENT TO FARM FOR TWO YEARS

Ting Bacchus Convicted of Assault Becomes Obstreperous in Court.

Ting Bacchus, colored, was convicted in Recorder's court yesterday of assaulting Rebecca Davis, also colored, with bottles, an umbrella and various other things, and was ordered by the court to be sent to the county farm for 12 months. She then became violently abusive and used a choice assortments of expletives reflecting on the Recorder whereupon he added another year on a charge of nuisance. Fleet Bacchus, colored, implicated in the same case, will be tried today.

Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in cases against J. T. McGuire and Ed Green, both colored, charged with assault on females. Robert McMillan, colored, was fined $25 and the costs for crulty to animals.

D. S. Rich, white, was taxed with the costs for speedings and judgment was suspended in a case against Frank Sears, also white. Ben Page, colored, was found not guilty of assault with a deadly weapon.

BIBLE STUDY RESUMED.

Another Feature at Boys' Brigade Renewed for Season.

An enthusiastic meeting of the members of the Boys' Brigade was held last night with a large attendance recorded. Rev. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church was present and formally resumed his teaching of the Bible, which takes the form of Bible lectures. This course has already run for three years and is now beginning its fourth year without any perceptible abatement of interest. These lectures will be presented each Monday night just before the meeting of the members.

After this phase of the evening's business was transacted the business of payment of dues, admission of members and other purely secular features were conducted. Seceral new members were added to the roll.

The Junior gymnasium classes and basket ball league will open this afternoon at 3 o'clock. There are four teams in this league and as each player is also enthusiastic over gymnastics this class presents a very animmated scene indced.

—A building permit has been issued to Samuel English for the erection of a three-room residence on Swann street between 14th and 15th, at a cost of $300 and to E. S. Hart for the erection of an office on the southwest corner of Front and Wright streets, the cost to be $50.

CHARGES AGAINST JUDGES

Affidavit That Election Officials Are to Receive Money from Tidewater Power Company.

Charges that Frank Harper and Jim Elkins, judges of the franchise election in the first precinct of the first ward, are to receive money from the Tidewater Power Company for working for the company's interests in the fight are contained in an affidavit signed by W. P. Smith, and brought to the attention of City Council at a special session yesterday at noon. Council, after some discussion, decided to turn the document over to the City Board of Elections for whatever action that body cousiders necessary, and a meeting of the City Board will probably be held to consider the matter.

The affidavit was handed in at the meeting yesterday by Councilman Loost, who stated that it had been handed to him as he was on his way to the City Hall to attend the meeting. It is as follows:

"State of North Carolina, New Hanover County.

"W. P. Smith, being first duly sworn, says: Frank Harper told me on Thursday morning, October 1st, 1914, that he (Frank Harper) was to get money from the Tidewater Power Company. He mentioned the amount that he (Harper) was to get, but asked me not to say anything about the amount because he was getting more than some of the others. That he (Harper) said he was working against the franchise just for the money he was to get from the Tidewater Power Company, and he said he was to get this money for his work against the franchise. Harper also told me that Jim (J. D.) Elkins was to get fifty (50) dollars from the Tidewater Power Company for working for them against the franchise in the coming election.

(Signed) "W. P. SMITH.

"Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3rd day of October, 1914.

"G. W. BORNEMANN,

"Notary Public."

The members of Council could not place the affiant, W. P. Smith, and no one else in the room seemed to know who the man was. Councilman Jones, who is from the First Ward, said that he did not know Smith, but that he was acquainted with both Harper and Elkins, and believed that they were both responsible men. If Council was going to take action on the matter, he said, he would like first to know more about the man who made the affidavit.

Chairman C. W. Woodward, of the county and city boards of elections, was present, and Mayor Moore asked him if he had heard anything of the matter previous to the meeting. Mr. Woodward replied that he had not.

There was some doubt on the part of the members of Council as to whether that body had the right to take any action, or make any changes in the list of election officials. City Attorney E. K. Bryan advised the body that if it was going to take action on the matter, Harper and Elkins should be given a hearing first.

It was finally decided to refer the matter to the Board of Elections, and the clerk was instructed to forward the affidavit, together with a formal letter of explanation, to the chairman. Chairman Woodward stated last night that as soon as he received the affidavit he would confer with other members of the City Board of Elections, and that a special meeting would likely be called to consider it.

Council also referred to the City Board of Elections several vacancies in the list of officials for the franchise election, together with a list of names recommended as substitutes. The vacancies are caused by the resignations of several of those appointed first.

Comment on Names.

Councilman Wood, during a lull in the discussion as to the affidavit, delivered some comments on the full page advertisement of the Tidewater Power Company, giving names of people claimed to be against the franchise. Mr. Wood observed that he had talked with a number of people whose names are given, and that many of them have no idea of voting against the franchise. Several, he said, had told him that they were going to vote for the franchise, and others had said they signed the document as a petition for an extension of the Tidewater's existing lines, and not as a protest against the new franchise.

Lack of System.

Mayor Moore called attention to the need for a strict adherence to the city's present purchasing system, or its abolition altogether. Under the city charter, all supplies are to be bought through a purchasing agent, and Mayor Moore has been acting as the purchasing agent. More recently, however, the Mayor said, purchases had been made by almost anyone connected with the different departments, a situation which makes a great deal of extra work and considerable confusion in the treasurer's office. Often articles are purchased and delivered several weeks before the requisitions are secured. The Mayor said that he did not wish to seem harsh or severe, but that he wanted to serve notice that hereafter he would decline to approve any bill for goods purchased by the city, unless the purchase had been made with his knowledge. In cases of emergency, he said, the rule could be suspended, but he thought it best either to stick to the system or abolish it altogether. Several members expressed the opinion that the city should purchase many of its supplies in larger quantities, and thus get better prices.

Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., was present and asked Council to pave Burgwin alley, running east and west through the block between Second and Third and Princess and Chesnut street. The matter was referred to Councilman Merritt, to investigate and report back to Council.

Real Estate Transfers.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: J. D. James and wife to John McLoughlin and wife, for $500 and other considerations, lot on north line of Queen, 41 1-4 feet west of 10th street, 41 1-4x66 feet in size; W. H. Lumsden and wife to Frank Farrow and wife, for 100 and other considerations, tract in Masonboro township, on east side of Masonboro road, containing about three quarters of an acre; Manhattan Company to W. M. Edwards, for $10 and other considerations, lot on southeast corner of 15th and Dock streets, 33x99 feet in size; by another deed W. M. Edwards and wife transfer same property to H. O. O'Keefe and wife, for $1,000 and other considerations.

—Suit was started in Superior Court yesterday by A. C. Levering, trading as the Levering Manufacturing Co., against the Wayne Machinery Company. Herbert McClammy, Esq., represents the plaintiff.

ANNUAL CORN SHOW SEEMS TO BE ASSURED

Commissioners Endorse Fair, and Pledge Support.

Farmers of County Determined to Carry Movement to Successful Finish —Business Men of Wilmington Interested.

The holding of the annual corn show and agricultural fair seems now to be assured since the farmers of the county have expressed themselves as determined that the annual exhibition of farm products shall be given and many of the business men of the city have placed themselves on record as willing to contribute to its support. The County Commissioners at their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon enthusiastically endorsed the movement to hold the fair and pledged themselves to donate $50 from their personal funds to its support.

Mr. J. F. Herring, county farm demonstrator, appeared before the Board, and made a report of his work, stating that he was very much pleased with the success of the efforts that are being made to form an organization of the farmers of the county for the purpose of co-operating in the solution of various problems confronting them. He said that the farmers of the county are very much interested in holding the corn show and are determined to have the fair, if it is posible to do so.

The Board adopted the following resolution by a unanimous vote:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this Board that the annual Corn Show held by the farmers of the county is a beneficial exhibition and meets with out approval, and we recommend that every effort be made to have the show this year."

As a further evidence of their interest Chairman M. S. Willard subscribed $20 to its support; Mr. W. A. McGirt, $10; Mr. W. E. Yopp, $10; Mr. L. W. Moore, $10. County Auditor Orrell said that he would like to add $5 to the fund.

At a meeting of 25 or more farmers held in the Court House last night the Corn Show was discussed and each and everyone present declared that he would do everything possible to help in the movement. They enthusiastically endorsed the fair and declared their willingness to contribute to the fund necessary to carry it through.

The meeting which was presided over by Mr. H. H. Rau, of Castle Haynes, was called primarily to hear a report of a sub-committee from the committee, appointed at the recent picnic of farmers of Wilmington to devise plans for organising a co-operative organization of farmers. The report of the sub-committee was with reference to certain modifications of the rules of the Wilmington Co-operative Truck Growers' Association, so as to make the organization applicable to the entire country.

The proposition made by the members of the association was accepted by the meeting and the following committee was appointed to perfect the organization: Mr. J. P. Herring, chairman, and Messrs. J. O. Brown, H. H. Rau, W. D. Rhodes and William Gregerson.

This committee will meet with the farmers of East Wilmington at the school house tonight at 8 o'clock and will organize a branch of the county organization. A cordial invitation is extended every farmer to attend.

It was announced yesterday that North Carolina Sorosis will continue its plans for the annual autumn floral fair and fine arts exhibit which will be held in November. While it may not be held on an as elaborate scale as was at first contemplated the present plans are for a fair which will be a decided credit to Wilmington and New Hanover county.

BIG CROWDS SEE CIRCUS.

Sparks Show Gives Creditable Exhibition Here Yesterday.

For the first time this season the people of Wilmington had an opportunity to see a circus and many availed themselves of the privilege. Sparks show, the only tarheel circus on the road, gave two most creditable exhibitions at Fourth and Castle streets. The best of order prevailed and there were none of the things that in days past served to discredit the circus.

While the limited area of ground prevented the horseback riding from being given, there were features enough without this to make a splendid show. The parade yesterday morning attracted much attention, especially the five big elephants and the three bands of music. Of course the caliope should be mentioned also. The show isn't as big as some on the road, but it is all in all an exhibition worth seeing.

Revival Services at Bladen Street.

Rev. B. E. Stanfield, of Fairmont, preached his first sermon in the series of revival services at Bladen Street Methodist church last night. He was heard by a large congregation and the discourse made a deep impression. Services will be held tonight beginning at 7:45 o'clock with a song service. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Growing

In our business shows that still more people are opening accounts with us. We are daily adding new names to our already long list of depositors. There is a good reason for this. It is this: They have found the road to wealth is by the way of the bank account; and that we, by our uniformly conservative methods, our courteous treatment of our customers, our steady increase in strength, have proven that this is the place to open that account. We want your account.

NOTED EVANGELIST DELAYED

Rev. Dr. J. W. Chapman May Come to Wilmington First of Year—Ministers Hold Meeting.

That Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, the noted evangelist, of Jamaica, Long Island, and his corps of assistants, will be unable to come to Wilmington within the next several months on account of the fact that Dr. Chapman has been called to England was the report of the committee of the Wilmington Ministerial Association, appointed some time ago to devise plans for the holding a series of simultaneous evangelistic services in the city, at the regular meeting of the organization yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

The committee is composed of Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, chairman, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, Rev. J. A. Sullivan, Rev. J. D. Bundy and Rev. G. W. McClanahan. The correspondence with Dr. Chapman has been conducted by Dr. McClure.

Three letters have been received from the evangelist, the first telling of his desire to come to Wilmington; the second of an agreement to conduct services in Great Britain this winter and the third that he had been called to England sooner than he had expected and that he would not return to America until after Christmas.

The committee was instructed to see if Dr. Chapman could be secured early in the new year. The committee will take up the matter at once and hope to be successful. Dr. Chapman is considered one of the leading evangelists of the world. Mr. Moody once said that he was the greatest living evangelist.

An interesting address on China and the conditions now prevailing in that country was made to the association by Rev. Lacy L. Little, of Kiang Yin, China, one of the missionaries supported by the First Presbyterian church. Following his address, Mr. Odis B. Hinnant, director of the Boys' Department of the Y. M. C. A. was introduced to the association and made a short talk on his work.

The social service committee, of which Rev. F. B. Clausen is chairman, was instructed to confer with Mr. William Crownstream, relative to his offer of a tract of land consisting of about 400 acres in Pender county some time ago to be used as memorial to his wife who died a few months ago. It is the purpose of the association to use the tract as a reformatory for boys, provided the necessary funds can be secured.

This was the first regular meeting since the close of summer and weekly sessions will be held every Monday morning during the remainder of the winter months. Rev. G. T. Adams, president of the organization, presided yesterday and a record of the proceedings was kept by the secretary, Mr. J. B. Huntington.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Friends of Mr. Ivar Palmgren will regret to learn that he was compelled to undergo a serious operation at the Coast Line hospital at Rocky Mount yesterday. He was reported during the day as getting along as well as could be expected, and an early recovery will be hoped for.

C., to attend the special meeting of the diocese of East Carolina which will meet there tomorrow to elect a successor to the late Bishop Robert Strange.

PREPARING FOR TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY AT CHARLOTTE.

Executive Committee Holds Meeting in Raleigh—Prominent Speakers.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 5.—The executive committee of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, was in session here this afternoon and tonight preparing for the assembly, which meets this time in Charlotte Thanksgiving week, November 25-28. Numbers of quite prominent speakers are booked for the general session, but these will not be made public until acceptances are in hand.

The committee that has just perfected the programme consists of President M. C. S. Noble; Secretary E. E. Sams, Raleigh; Miss Mary O. Graham, Charlotte; Miss Hattie Parrott, Kinston; Mrs. Hettie Fennell, Wilmington; Prof. J. H. Highsmith, Wake Forest; Dr. J. Y. Joyner, Raleigh.

This same committee, with the addition of Prof. F. M. Harper, Raleigh, and N. W. Walker, Chapel Hill, are a special committee on amendments to the constitution of the assembly and they held a lengthy conference perfecting proposed amendments to be submitted to the assembly. Indications are that the assembly will be especially well attended, said the officers here today.

SEASON'S FIRST SHIPMENT

Italian Steamer Clears With Part Cargo Cotton—First Vessel Through Canal Due Today.

The first shipment of cotton direct from Wilmington to foreign ports for the season went out yesterday on the Italian steamer Dora Daltea, that vessel carrying 600 bales for Barcelona, Spain, and 2,0000 bales for Genoa, Italy. The shipment was from Alexander Sprunt & Son. The Daltea goes via Norfolk, where she takes on coal, proceeding thence to her destination. She came to Wilmington from Savannah, Ga., where she took on a part cargo of cotton.

A total of about 1,800 bales of cotton was shipped from Wilmington Saturday and yesterday, 1,200 or 1,500 bales going by Clyde Line steamer Cherokee and the balance by rail. This cotton was shipped to New York, where part of it will be exported and part consumed in New England mills.

The British steamer Kylestrome cleared yesterday for Savannah, Ga., where she goes to unload a part cargo. She has been discharging a part cargo of fertilizer materials at this port. From Savannah she will go to Mobile, Ala.

Arriving at quarantine at Southport Sunday, the British steamer Strathlorne is expected to come on up the river this morning. The vessel is bound for this port from the west coast of South America, and is understood to have made the trip through the Panama Canal. She will be the first vessel to reach this port through the canal route.

TO MEET IN JACKSONVILLE

Annual Session of Wilmington Baptist Association Convenes There Tonight—Programme.

The annual meeting of the Wilmington Baptist Association convenes in the Baptist church at Jacksonville, N. C., tonight at 8 o'clock and will continue in session through Thursday afternoon. Rev. W. C. Hall, pastor of Southside Baptist church, this city, is moderator and will preside over the meeting. The introductory sermon will be preached tonight by Rev. C. V. Brooks, of Teacheys.

The association embraces 32 Baptist churches in New Hanover, Pender and Onslow counties, all of this county being included in the territory covered by the organization. The pastors of all these churches will be in attendance as well as a number of prominent laymen of the church, each congregation having the privilege of sending three delegates. The visitors will be entertained in the homes of the Baptists at Jacksonville and their friends.

There will be three sessions each day of the meeting, one in the morning, one in the afternoon and at night. The State, Home and Foreign mission work of the church will be discussed tomorrow and the reports from the different churches read. Tomorrow night a missionary sermon will be preached. The session on Thursday will be devoted to the Sunday School work of the church.

The Wilmington pastors and delegates will leave this afternoon for the opening session tonight.

BURIAL OF MR. MOORE.

Speaking at Burgaw Postponed on Account of Funeral—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Oct. 5.—In the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends the last sad tribute was paid to the late Evander McNair Moore, Sr., at the Burgaw cemetery this afternoon at 3 o'clock when his remains were tenderly laid away. Rev. P. L. Clark conducted the services at the grave. There were many beautiful floral tributes, among the number being a beautiful design from the mayor and board of commissioners of which board he was a member. Drs. W. C. Murphy and John A. Ferrell, of Washington, D. C.; Judge J. D. Murphy, of Asheville; Dr. B. R. Graham, of Wallace, and A. McL. Graham, Esq., of Clinton, were among the out-of-town relatives here for the funeral.

Hon. Geo. E. Hood, of Goldsboro, and J. W. Little, Esq., of Wilmington, were here today to speak, but on account of the funeral of Mr. Moore the appointment was cancelled.

The "free rangers" held a meeting today but just what was the outcome of the meeting your correspondent has not learned.

TAX BOOKS GIVEN SHERIFF

County Commissioners in Monthly Session Consider Many Routine Matters—Jurors.

The tax books for the year 1914 were turned over to Sheriff Cowan for collection of taxes by the Board of County Commissioners at their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon. Jurors were drawn for the two weeks' term of Superior Court which convenes on October 26th and for the one week term which convenes on November 16th. The board took a recess until next Monday afternoon.

County Auditor Orrell presented a list of delinquents for poll tax and in compliance with the law the clerk of the board was ordered to turn the same over to the next grand jury. It was decided to give those failing to list their real and personal property until November 15th to settle the same and if not done on or before that time to charge them with double tax as required by law.

On motion of Commissioner McGirt a special appropriation of $500 was made, the same to be placed in the hands of the chairman of the board to be used for the suppression of crime. A similar appropriation was made last spring and from the reports made by representative citizens has proven a great aid in the enforcement of the law.

The request of Councilman Jones, of the Department of Public Safety, of the city of Wilmington, which was presented at the last meeting of the commissioners, was discussed and while no action was taken on the matter the majority of the commissioners expressed themselves as favoring the use of a sum of not exceeding $100 in co-operating with the Wilmington police department in ferreting out certain cases of crime. It is probable that a part of the $500 appropriated will be used in this manner.

Mr. J. P. Herring was re-elected as county farm demonstrator for another year. The members of the board expressed themselves as very much pleased with the splendid work that Mr. Herring is doing.

Jurors for the two weeks' term of Superior Court for the trial of civil cases which convenes October 26th, and the one week term for the trial of criminal cases which convenes November 16th, were drawn as follows:

Monday, October 26th—W. B. Mure, A. J. Mallard, Jr., W. J. Orr, L. H. Simmons, J. W. Orrell, J. A. Thomas, S. W. Lewis, Oscar Pearsall, L. G. Bennett, W. G. Herring, J. M. Croom, W. C. Hardeson, R. F. Hobbs, G. W. Corbin, E. L. W. King, S. J. Coker, J. D. Doscher, Jr., Fulton T. Allen.

Monday, November 2nd—J. A. Kelly, C. E. Smith, John R. Turrentine, E. T. Rembert, J. T. Whitehead, J. W. Foreman, A. W. Sidbury, E. T. Burdick, G. J. McCormick, T. H. Hawkins, J. E. Stanley, Thomas McDonald, J. A. Drew, J. F. Mason, G. L. Skipper, Thos. E. Davis, J. R. Roberts, H. C. Mason.

Monday, November 16th—L. M. Smith, T. J. Tair, L. W. Davis, R. M. Murphy, Roger Moore, John Petter, C. L. Taylor, H. W. Shepard, W. H. McLain, W. A. Wright, N. T. Maxwell, D. E. Kerr, C. P. Newton, F. A. Cashwell, J. E. Eakins, J. D. Hewlett, Jr., J. W. Kerr, W. A. Whitney, B. C. Lee, W. P. Carroll, W. J. Davis, H. W. Hunter, E. V. H. Peschau, S. Seigler, Leon George, A. L. Dosher, O. A. Wiggins, B. W. Newkirk, H. B. Bailey, R. F. Lewis, A. L. Mincy, R. T. Burns, N. T. Pittman, W. M. Edwards, B. F. Rathgen, W. T. Craig.

A. J. Marshall, Esq., in behalf of Mr. Bonham, of Winter Park, asked the board to have ditch east of Downing Branch and north of the public road east of Castle Haynes. They ed to the road committee with power to act. Messrs. D. O. Westbrook and Victor Bordeaux, of Castle Haynes, appeared before the board to ask that some work be done on the Island Creek road each of Castle Haynes. They were assured that the road would receive attention as soon as possible.

The assessment on a residence in Wilmington, owned by G. W. Howell, Esq., was reduced from $2,500 to $2,000. The assessment on two lots owned by Mr. T. L. Vines was reduced from $950 to $625. Both of these reductions were made to correct errors.

The hours of the register of deeds were fixed at 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. from October 1st to May 1st with no half holiday on Saturdays. From May 1st to October 1st, the hours will be the same with the exception of the half holiday which will be given.

Commissioner W. E. Yopp was authorized to have a lodge house erected at Oak Grove cemetery at a cost not to exceed $100.

A communication from Sheriff Cowan with reference to extra help for the collection of taxes was referred to a special committee composed of Commissioner L. W. Moore, the county attorney and the county auditor with power to act. T. F. Bagley was given permission to move a house over the public road at Seagate. A petition from certain citizens living on Greenfield Terrace relative to the opening of a new road was referred to the road committee.

Following is the report of Mr. R. A. Burnett county superintendent of roads, for the month of September:

"I beg to submit the following report for the month of September, 1914:

"Number of prisoners in camp, last report, 130; received during month, 27; number of prisoners released, 31; number total now in camp, 126. Seventeen men worked in mine 24 days. Rock shipped from mine by cars, 100 tons. Rock shipped from mine by truck 175 tons.

"Camp No. 2 is in charge of E. L. Eakins. This camp is stationed about ten miles from the city along the Federal Point road. They have 15 men and seven teams. This gang has built 600 lineal yards of road bed and have strawed 1,500 lineal yards of road. Moved 3,100 cubic yards of earth and have put in 50 feet of 20-inch pipe and 40 feet of 12-inch pipe.

"Camp No. 3 is in charge of A. J. Willoughby. This camp is stationed about a mile and a half from Sea Gate along the Greenville Sound road. They have at this camp 16 men and eight teams. They have built 400 lineal yards of road bed and have cut and cleared 700 yards of right of way and have 50 feet of 20-inch pipe and have cut 150 feet of ditch.

"Camp No. 4 is stationed at the 8 mile-post along the Scott's Hill road. This camp is in charge of G. C. Orr. They have at this camp 12 men and five teams. They have worked over 2,200 yards of road and have built 1,100 yards of rock road.

"Gang No. 5 is an extra gang. This gang stays at the East Wilmington camp at night and Saturdays. Gang is in charge of T. J. Brewer. They have used one car of road oil along the Castle Hayne road, covering about six miles of road and have put in 14 feet of 12-inch pipe and have patched over the Shell road and the Masonboro road.

"We have cut weeds along the Scott's Hill road and the Shell road and around the Belt road. Have painted the Smith Creek bridge and have put speed notices at Third and Greenfield streets, at Sunset Park and 17th and Market streets and at Mercer avenue."

Following is the report of Mr. P. H. Raspberry, superintendent of the county home, for the last month:

"I hand you herewith my report for the county home and farm for the month just ended:

"We now have in our charge, 23 patients and 35 prisoners. We have received during September, 14 prisoners and one patient. We have discharged during September, 12 prisoners—no patients. Joe Jenkins, colored, who was received September 17th and died September 28th.

"We have had very little sickness among patients the past month and we are striving to keep the home and surroundings in the best conditions. Have had a carpenter during repair work around home and outhouses which were very much needed.

"We are very busy saving our hay and picking out cotton. We have already picked about eight bales of cotton and would like for the Board to advise us what disposition to make of same.

"We have sowed clover and set out about 2,000 cabbage and collard plants, also about one-half acre spinach.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Messrs. Shrier & Solomon, the well known clothiers, have bought their bale of cotton and have it on display at their store, corner Front and Princess streets.

—Messrs. Temple & Crowder have taken over the business of Chas. Schaeffer & Sons, Brokers, heretofore conducted as a branch of the New York house.

How Famous Actresses Banish Superfluous Hair

Betty Lorraine, the popular actress, who won fame in "The Little Parisienne" and other Comedies, writes: "Theatrical women are now using a remarkable prescription that acts like magic in curing all trace of unsightly hair growths. It is Mrs. Osgood's Wonder. Unlike the electric needle, it can be used with perfect safety. Unlike evil-smelling depilatories, it doesn't burn the skin. I used it first over a year ago and have not had a trace of superfluous hair since."

Mrs. Osgood's Wonder is quite inexpensive and is sold by J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. and other up-to-date drug stores. Signed Money-Back Guarantee in every package.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Wilmington People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, For Wilmington kidney sufferers, Have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Wilmington people.

Mrs. J. E. Marshburn, 516 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys were in bad shape and I had dull pains through my loins, together with headaches and kidney weakness. In the morning, when I got up, I was tired and languid, and had but little strength with which to begin the day's work. After I had used part of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Bellamy's Drug Store, I improved and it was not long before my kidneys were restored to their proper working order. I have no hesitation in re-endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills. They are certainly a good backache and kidney medicine."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Marshburn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Brooklyn, Oct. 5.—The Boston champions won both games in a double header with Brooklyn today 15 to 2 and 9 to 5. Boston hammered Aitchison and Schmutz at will in the first contest, while Crutcher held the locals safe throughout. The second game was close until the ninth when, with Brooklyn one run ahead, Whitted won the game for Boston by driving out a home run with the bases full. Ragan had struck the side out in the eighth on nine pitched balls, but he blew up in the ninth.

BATTING DOPE FAVORS CONNIE MACK'S CLAN

Have Three .300 Hitters Against Brave's One.

Athletics Have Club Average of .273 for 145 Games Played, While Braves Show .247 As Result of 140 Contests.

New York, Oct. 5.—When the Athletics of Philadelphia and the Boston "Braves" line up in the opening game of the world's championship series the fans will have an opportunity of seeing in actual play whether the forecasts as to the relative merits of the teams, as a whole, or the individual players, man for man, were correctly figured as a result of the work of the men during the season just finished.

Unofficial batting averages figured up to September 23, furnished an interesting comparison of the hitting ability of the opposing pennant winners. On paper Connie Mack's men look the strongest in this department. Three of them, Collins, McInnes and Baker, are well over the much desired, 300 mark, while Connolly is the only of the the "Braves" to have that distinction. Figures are stubborn facts and from season to season many of the few, 300 hitters here demonstrated that they did not get to the high places on the list by a "fluke." Consistently good work with the stick is all that keeps the topnotchers in their exalted places in the average column. There success is simply due to their good eyes and equally useful arms, a combination which completely eliminates the element of luck.

That they have become accustomed to the boxwork and the many furtive tricks of the pitcers in their respective leagues during the season goes without saying. Just what the heavy hitters will or will not do with the "strange" curves and inshoots of rival league moundmen remains to be seen. Herein lies a great deal of the interest taken in the post-season games. This is what adds a little more uncertainty to the outcome and the uncertainty of baseball is a potent factor in the National game. Some very prominent pitchers have been "Waterloosed" when, in the world's series, they confronted "strange" batters. Probably a few surprises are in store for one or more pitchers in the coming championship game. As in the past, some one of them who is looked up to as almost invincible in his own league may be "found" by the batsmen of the league. Everyone who goes to a game likes to see the boys "hit 'em out," and it is to be hoped they will not be disappointed in the coming struggle for supremacy.

When but two weeks of the present season's schedule remained to be played out the unofficial batting averages of the rival clubs showed that the Athletics had the advantage by a fairly good margain of .26. The Athletics for 145 games played had a club batting average of .273 and the Braves had .247 for 140 games.

Following is a list of the players on both sides who took part in twenty-five or more games this season together with their batting averages.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—The Athletics regulars began tuing up for the world's series after a week's rest when they defeated New York today 2 to 0. All the regular fielders and catchers manager Mack expects to send in against the Braves next Friday were in the game with the exception of McInnis. The latter has two sore fingers and he merely took part in the bating practice. The injury is not serious enough to keep him out of the big games. Walsh played first base for Philadelphia in good style.

The American League champions showed the effect of their lay off by their weak hitting but this was offset by excellent fielding and splendid twirling by Bush, Bressler and Shawkey. Each pitched three innings, Bush not permiting a hit and Bressler and Shawkey only one each.

ARMY-NAVY CONTROVERSY MAY BE OPENED AGAIN.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The controversy over the site of the annual Army-Navy football game, which led Secretary Garrison to recommend that the game be abandoned, may be re-opened in an effort to decide upon a new plan agreeable to both factions. Lieut. Commander Fairfield, of the Naval Academy, will confer with Secretary Daniels on the subject tomorrow and later Mr. Daniels will discuss it with Secretary Garrison.

HOUSE REJECTS LEVER WAREHOUSING BILL.

For Facilitating Bank Credits on Warehouse Receipts.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The Lever cotton and grain warehousing bill to facilitate granting of bank credits on warehouse receipts for cotton, grain and like agricultural products, was rejected by the House today by a vote of 163 to 109, lacking the necessary two-thirds vote. The bill would authorize a nation-wide system of warehousing under Federal supervision for staple and non-perishable agricultural products.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

THEATRICAL

In "Fine Feathers," the new play of today which will be presented for the first time here by H. H. Frazee at the Academy of Music, Friday, October 9, Eugene Walter has lived up to his earlier works, to-wit: "Paid in Full," "The Easiest Way," "The Wolf", "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," etc., and is said to have written a drama full of intense moments developed from situations that might well be met with in the life of any man of the middle class with ambitions to live beyond his means.

The author is said to have succeeded in developing his subject through varying steps of increasing intenseness to a climax at the finale of the last act that is both unexpected and thrilling. The opening scene of the play is humorous, but the lightness soon wears off and one begins to appreciate the cleverness of the playwright in his changing from the simple comedy to intense drama. The climaxes are not forced but come naturally and in sequence, and where possible the heaviness of the drama is relieved at the proper places with just enough humor to allow the audience to secure its balance. "Fine Feathers" is said to be a play that will appeal to all classes of people, for all classes have been drawn upon for types and well selected types they are said to be.

It is the most natural thing in the world for a young wife to desire finery and the things that go to relieve the monotony of life, and also for that same young wife to fail to understand why her husband cannot succeed like the husbands of her friends and secure the necessary income to live up to her desires. That is the situation upon which Mr. Walter has built his play. And in his latest work he has brought to bear all the searing investive at his command—he has dared to write a message to the American people in which the truth about themselves and their homes is the dominating note.

"Peg O' My Heart."

It is a positive relief to welcome the return of such a clean wholesome remarkable play as "Peg O' My Heart" which comes to the Academy of Music on October 12th. If there is such a thing as pride in the breast of Oliver Morosco, who produced it and J. Hartley Manners, its author should be looked upon as a hero, in the cause of advancement and elevation of the drama, "Peg", being one of the purest plays ever seen on our local stage. That it will be largely attended here goes without saying, for those who were fortunate enough to witness this gem of dramatic construction sang its highest praises last season.

"Mutt and Jeff in Mexico."

"The Real it of the Show World"—is a very broad assertion. If it were made by Gus Hill, the sole owner and manager of "Mutt and Jeff" it would undoubtedly be set down as due to an exaggerated egotism, but, coming from the critic of one of the most important and largest circulated newspapers in the Eastern country, it must necessarily have weight with the theatre-going public. The expression is an honest criticism that has been used by the critics of at least 10,000 daily and Sunday newspapers throughout the United States and Canada in the past three years, which denotes unmistakably the fact that an equal number of trained writers, whose business is to see, compare and criticise plays for the benefit of newspaper readers, honestly believe that Bud Fisher's now nationally famous cartoon comedy as presented in an elaborate musical comedy by Mr. Gus Hill, is the one and only real musical comedy hit of the world of theatricals. "Mutt and Jeff in Mexico" is the title of the new offering which Gus Hill has prepared at the cost of a small fortune for new scenery, costumes, story, music and everything that goes to make the most elaborately magnificent musical comedy production the stage has ever had. It all comes to the Academy of Music commencing on October 10th, to stay one night. Don't miss it is good advice

That Bill at Victoria.

This is the week that the Victoria Theatre promised is going to be the biggest season of vaudeville Wilmington has ever had, and those who had the pleasure of witnessing the opening show yesterday certainly must admit that this swell Keith house has started in to make good its boast. The show that opened yesterday and which will run throughout today and tomorrow is a great success in every way. If you are looking for the biggest slice of amusement for small money why go to the Victoria today or tomorrow. This is a sure tip to all amusement lovers.

The present show is headed by the sensational dancers, Crossman and Stewart, and they are some dancers. Now Wilmington has seen many dancers, who have stirred with their wonderful grace and skill, but it has never beheld the equal of this duo. They are the swellest dancers ever, and their appearance on the stage is a riot of motion. Their repertoire is extensive and yesterday they were lavished with encores. Robins and his friend are also on the bill, and, by the way, this is another big time act. Robins is a tramp acrobat and his friend is an extraordinarily intelligent canine. Their act is a howl for laughter. Still other fine artists on the bill are Hendricks and Padula, presenting an exceedingly beautiful sketch, filled with pretty songs and some classy instrumental renditions.

Great Day—Grand Theatre.

In spite of the weather and the strongest kind of opposition the Grand Theatre did a big business yesterday, and delight and appreciation on the part of the audience were also big, vividly exemplifying that the folks of Wilmington recognize that in the Paramount Pictures, which the Grand is now presenting, they are getting a chance to behold the greatest thing in moving pictures and at the smallest prices of admission charged anywhere in the country. Think of both of these things in moving picture work. They are different from anything ever seen in Wilmington before.

Yesterday the second Paramount Picture was presented at the Grand, being Jack London's virile, thrilling tale "An Odyssey of the North." It was nothing short of magnificent and if you failed to see it yesterday be certain to see it today, because the Grand will, fortunately, offer you a second chance today, as the film was booked to run two days. In fact, it will take two days for the folks of Wilmington to see it, judging by the comment already heard; comment of the highest praise. "An Odyssey of the North," is Jack London's masterpiece and the Paramount Company, composed of the leading theatrical managers, gave it a brilliant production.

Five Reels—Five Cents—Bijou.

Well, sir, even the circus, that irresistible magnet that usually draws everything its way, was unable to keep the crowds away from Wilmington's most popular movie theatre yesterday afternoon and evening, and the mammoth bill on tap at this joy spot was witnessed by large crowds at every showing.

Today the management will go it just one better, offering a grand total of five full reels of the newest movies ever seen in Wilmington, and at the ridiculously low price of one cent a reel—five cents admission.

The bill is headed by that sensational and great Imp dramatic feature, "Redemption," that has created such a great stir wherever it has been shown in the big cities—it's right direct, too. This mammoth feature drama is directed personally by Herbert Rawlinson, and seen in the leading roles are such screen stars as Wm. Shaw, Wm. Welsh and Violet Mersereau, three of the strongest dramatic artists now before the screen.

Coming next on today's treat is one of those rare two-reel Keystone farces—two full reels, mind you, "A New York Girl." It's got a million comical situations in it that are sure to awaken laughter, in which Mack Sennet, that famous Keystone leading man and director, plays the leading role.

Then there's another one of those great Sterling juvenile comedies, "The Broken Doll," featuring popular little Billy Jacobs in the leading role.

CONTRACT FOR DREDGING.

Sun Construction Company to Do Work in Core Sound Waterway.

The Sun Dredging & Construction Company, of Philadelphia, Pa., have been awarded the contract for dredging 150,000 cubic yards of dirt in the waterway from Core Sound to Beaufort at a cost of 16 cents a yard. There were three bids submitted, one by W. H. French, of Norfolk, Va., at 18 5-10 cents a cubic yard, and one by the Maryland Dredging & Construction Company, of Baltimore, at 17.2 cents a cubic yard. The bids were opened on September 8th, but had to be submitted to the office at Washington before the contract could be awarded.

Specifications are being prepared in the office of Maj. H. W. Stickle, United States District Engineer, for 2,716 short leaf pine piles to be used in the construction of a lock and dam at Brown's Landing. Bids will probably be advertised for today or tomorrow.

Meeting of Bible Class.

There will be a business meeting of the Business Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Sunday School room, and all are requested to be there.

—Mr. B. W. Thacker, manager of the local branch of the Remington Typewriter Company, leaves this morning for Richmond, Va., where he will spend the rest of the week on business for his company.

We will buy a pound of Cotton for every pound of Tobacco we sell

We realize, with all the residents of the South, the present financial stringency due to the cotton situation. We realize that the South must sell its cotton, and we will help in the most practical way we know—by buying cotton.

For every pound purchased of all of these famous, popular brands of tobacco and cigarettes (counting 1,000 cigarettes equal to five pounds of tobacco) we will buy from our dealers a pound of cotton at 10c, in accordance with our circular to dealers dated Sept. 28.

We have faith in cotton. We know that when the war clouds roll away, the demand of the manufacturers for cotton throughout the world will be greater than ever before, and the South will enjoy unprecedented prosperity.

RED J TOBACCO — The man who chews RED J gets absolutely the best 10-cent plug tobacco of this character in the world. Made of old and mellowed leaf—a tough and lasting chew.

Tuxedo The Perfect Tobacco For Pipe and Cigarette — TUXEDO is recognized as America's favorite pipe tobacco—smoked and endorsed by thousands of famous Americans. The exclusive "Tuxedo Process" of making the finest Kentucky Burley leaf deliciously mild and non-biting has never been successfully imitated.

PENN'S Thick Natural Leaf TOBACCO — PENN'S is guaranteed to be the best Natural Leaf Tobacco made — sweet, mellow and satisfying. Any dissatisfied customer can return it to any merchant, whom we hereby authorize to return his money.

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO — Millions of men who roll their own cigarettes use this world-famed tobacco. There is no other like it—none with such a wonderful, unique aroma and mellow, fresh fragrance.

SOVEREIGN CIGARETTES — SOVEREIGN is the enthusiastic choice of the South in manufactured cigarettes. That wonderful flavor of Southern-grown, Old-Belt tobacco is the taste that Southern smokers love—"Quality Tells."

Remember, when you purchase any of the above brands, you not only get the greatest value for your money, but every pound purchased by you creates the sale of a pound of cotton.

COTTON SITUATION IN RUT

Little or No Change Yesterday in New York—Receipts Are Increasing Somewhat.

New York, Oct. 5.—Little or no change was reported in the cotton situation here today. There were rains in the eastern belt threatening to damage the grade of open cotton and to delay picking, but crop news attracted very little attention and local spot dealers said their offers from the South were about the same as at the end of last week.

Receipts are increasing somewhat, but are still far below the normal, and nearly all reports indicate that farmers are holding the bulk of their crops. A report is expected from the committee on rules and by laws here within the next day or two, and other committees are said to be working hard over measures necessary to a continuation of business, but no official announcements were made today.

New Orleans, Oct. 5.—Spot cotton lost one-sixteenth of a cent a pound in the local market today, middling being lowered to 7 13-16 and January contracts were traded in at 7.76c. This was a fall of about 30 points from the high levels reached by January last week. In spite of the losses the market had a good tone.

A feature of the day was the discussion of the proposition to open the future ring at an early date.

The export movement caused bullish comment. Foreign clearances from all ports for the day amounted to 14,675 bales, with sales on the spot 250; to arrive, 300.

COTTON SEED OIL.

New York, Oct. 5.—Cotton seed oil was lower, under scattered liquidation by tired longs and continued dullness in outside trade. Final prices were 2 to 9 points net lower. Tenders on contract were 1,500 barrels. Local sales, 7,500 barrels. The market closed easy. Spot, 5.55 to 5.57; Oct., 5.54 to 5.55; Nov., 5.61 to 5.62; Dec., 5.72 to 5.73; Jan., 5.86 to 5.87; Feb., 5.97 to 5.99; Mar., 6.08 to 6.09; Apr., 6.16 to 6.18; May, 6.24 to 6.26.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

Liverpool, Oct. 5.—Cotton spot, good business done; sales, 3,400 bales, including 3,000 American, on the basis of 5.30d. for middling. Imports, 4,727 bales, including 1,401 American.

CABLES GO STILL LOWER

Operations by the Hundred Million Pool Exercise Influence on Foreign Exchange Market.

New York, Oct. 5.—Operations by the $100,000,000 gold pool today exercised consid influence on the foreign exchange market. Cables opened as low as 4.95 3-4, with demand bills a cent under that quotation, but the unusually large inquiry soon caused a fractional advance.

Further subscriptions to the fund from interior banks were reported and it is believed the pool soon will have in hand not less than 25 per cent of the entire amount pledged. A large part of the exchange sold was for cotton bills, recent heavy shipments of that staple being reflected in these documents.

The several committees supervising private sales of securities were more active as a result of a broader demand for high class bonds and stocks. Individual investors supplied the bulk of the business but interior corporations also were in the market.

Except for renewals, the money market was flat. At best, quotations for time loans were only nominal at 7 to 8 per cent.

WOULD TAKE $500,000 FOR MONTICELLO PLACE

Should be the "Virginia Home of the Presidents."

Opinion of the Owner, Congressman Levy, Who Yields to Secretary Bryan's Insistance That He Agree to Sell.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Monticello, home of Thomas Jefferson, should be maintained as "the Virginia home of the Presidents" in the opinion of its owner, Representative Levy, of New York, who notified Secretary Bryan today he would consider an offer af $500,000 for the purchase of the estate by the government. His communication will be referred to Congress.

Mr. Levy's letter was in reply to one from Secretary Bryan urging him to reconsider his determination not to sell the estate.

It continues: "Your suggestion that its acquisition at this time would commemorate the great Democratic administration of President Wilson which is being conducted on Jeffersonian principles and would now be more opportune because the President is by birth a Virginian,' constrains me to renew my consideration of the whole matter. When I couple with this the great public interest which has been manifested, I am convinced that I must put aside my feelings and yield to the national demand, and make what to me is the supreme sacrifice of lifelong association."

Since his purchase of the 218 acres of the estate that remained intact, Mr. Levy wrote, he has added to it until the original acreage of over 700 has been restored.

"And so, Mr. Secretary," he added, "I bow to your wishes and those of the American people. For this property, for which I was offered and upon which I have expended a million dollars, I designate a price of $500,000 which will make me more than half donor of Monticello and thus consummate the people's wish."

Replying today Mr. Bryan wrote that he understood the sacrifice Mr. Levy was making, but the fact that the estate would remain a prized possession of the government should heal the pangs of parting.

"Allow me to express my personal appreciation," the letter adds, "of your willingness to have the purchase made at this time when the President, the Senate and the House will all rejoice in the opportunity to be connected with the transfer. I hope that Congress will take early and favorable action on the matter."

ANTI-TRUST PROGRAM COMPLETED IN SENATE

to the House, where its adoption with but brief debate is expected.

Three Democrats voted against the report, Senators Lane, Martine and Reed. Six Democrats voted for the Reed motion to recommit. They were Senators Lane, Martine, Reed, Thomas, Vardaman and Williams.

Senator Root was the only Republican who voted against the motion. Senator Poindexter, Progressive, voted against both the Reed motion and the motion to agree.

Long Day of Bitter Debate.

The vote was taken at the close of a long day of bitter debate on the bill. Senator Walsh replied to Senator Reed's attack on the measure and the latter rejoined with even more vigorous criticism. Senator Walsh declared the administration trade commission bill had committed Congress to a policy of prevention of minor restraints of trade by the commission, instead of criminal prosecution for such offenses. Senator Reed insisted the law would be utterly ineffective without the "teeth" which criminal penalties would supply.

struck in the hand today and two American cavalry horses were wounded by stray shots.

Casualties in the Mexican town were confined to the execution of 25 Yaqui Indians captured last night in a sortie.

After Colonel Guilfoyle, of the American border patrol, warned the besiegers and the besieged against shooting across the international line, Naco, Ariz., citizens sent the following telegram to President Wilson:

"The American citizens of the border town earnestly appeal to you for immediate and adequate protection from the battle between Mexican factions. Thousands of bullets are carelessly or maliciously fired into our streets and buildings, compelling us to abandon our homes and causing us to suffer great hardships and danger."

NOT SO ASSURING.

News From North of Mexico Shows Dissatisfaction.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 5.—Local representatives of the Carranza central government do not agree with official Washington's interpretation of the Mexican presidential situation. It was said today that the recent convention at Mexico City, by rejecting Carranza's resignation, had decided definitely who should act as provisional president.

The meeting of Carranza and Villa delegates at Aguas Calientes or Zacatecas thus becomes, the Carranza men interpreted, merely a mediation meeting.

MR. FRANK L. THIGPEN DEAD.

Well Known Planter of Edgecombe County Passes After Long Illness.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 4.—Mr. Frank L. Thigpen, 68 years old, a prominent planter of the county, died at his home the past week after a long illness. For some time he was ill here at the home of his son, Dr. W. J. Thigpen, but recently went to his home near Conetoe. He is survived by his wife and five children.

Rome, via Paris, Oct. 6.—1:35 A. M.—Official announcement is made here that the accouchment of Queen Helena is expected next January. The king and queen already have four children, one boy and three girls.

SIXTEEN MEN KILLED BY GAS EXPLOSION IN MINE

Accident at Mulga Mines, Near Ensley, Alabama.

Officials Say Explosion Was Purely Local, But Do Not Know What Ignited Pocket of Gas—Twelve Badly Injured.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 5.—Sixteen men are known to be dead and 12 badly injured as the result of an explosion at the Mulga mines of the Woodward Iron Co., near Ensley today.

Removal of the bodies is proceeding tonight, only nine of the sixteen dead having been brought out up to 8 o'clock.

Mine officials state the explosion was purely local and was caused by striking a pocket of gas. What ignited the gas has not been determined.

The mine itself was not seriously damaged. Mulga mines had a previous explosion April 20, 1910, when 35 were killed.

relieved from her present predicament for several days, in the opoinion of officials of the navigation bureau.

The bureau has placed the question of the vessel's ownership before the Department of State, and pending an investigation to disclose who actually owns the steamer and conditions under which any recent transfer of ownership was made, charge of registry will be withheld.

United States officials were somewhat puzzled tonight by the announcement from London that an official investigation was in progress of moves of ships which had left American ports for neutral countries, but failed to arrive at their destinations.

BRITAIN WATCHING CARGOES.

To See That They Are Not Furnished Germans Ships at Sea.

London, Oct. 5.—An official investigation is being made regarding the movements of a number of vessels which left American ports carrying coal, but which have not reached ports for which they cleared. While there is no disposition on the part of the British government to question the efforts of the American government to prevent the coaling of German warships by vessels from American ports, it is explained that every effort is being exerted to forestall a repetition of the coaling of the German cruiser Karlsruhe.

INVESTIGATION MAY NOW BE RECOMMENDED.

Into Expenditures in Primaries in Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Investigation into financing of senatorial primary campaigns in Illinois and Pennsylvania, urged by Senator Norris' resolution introduced a month ago, probably will be recommended by the Senate committee on privileges and elections. Senator Kern, chairman of the committee, announced today that the vote of the committee would be taken next Friday and that absent Republican members had been urged to be present.

Witnesses who have appeared before the committee in connection with the campaign of Roger C. Sullivan, Democratic nominee in Illinois, and Senator Boise Penrose, Republican nominee in Pennsylvania, were directed to produce further information.

GERMAN CRUISER COALED.

The Leipzig Supplied by German Freighter Near Magdalena.

San Francisco, Oct. 5.—The German cruiser Leipzig was coaled and supplied near Magdalena from the cargo of the German freighter Mazatlan, which left here August 13, according to a story told today by G. D. Smith, wireless operator of the Mazatlan, to Rear Admiral Fond, superintendent of the 12th United States naval district.

Smith said the Leipzig took mail and supplies direct from the Mazatlan but took on board the coal after it had been transferred from the Mazatlan to another vessel at Guaymas. Smith is a British subject. He was ordered to communicate with the Leipzig off the east of Lower California, he said, but refused and wrecked the wireless apparatus of the freighter.

HENRY STARTS HIM A FILIBUSTER IN HOUSE.

No Recess to Allow Members to Go Home This Week.

Washington, Oct. 5.—It became apparent todday that recesses of the House could not be arranged permitting members to go to their home districts this week.

Representative Henry, of Texas, who has insisted that Congress legislate for the relief of cotton farmers at this session, conducted a filibuster today with a view to heading off adjournment. He forced six roll calls for a quorum and threatened to keep up the filibuster indefinitely.

STEAMER WITH GRAIN FROM AMERICA SUNK

The Ardmount Strikes a Mine, After Leaving Dover.

London, Oct. 5.—Telegraphing from Ostend, the Telegraph correspondent says:

"The steamer Ardmount, loaded with grain, which left Dover at 6:30 o'clock this morning for Zebrug, Holland, struc a mine. Her crew was saved."

Thte Ardmount was from Galveston, and it is reported that when she reached Falmouth last Saturday she was ordered on to Antwerp.

WRITING CAMPAIGN DOCUMENT.

Wilson Preparing Letter Endorsing the Work of Congressmen.

Washington, Oct. 5.—President Wilson today began work on a letter he will send to Majority Leader Underwood endorsing for re-election Democratic members of the House and praising their work during the present Congress.

The President plans to make the letter one of his chief campaign documents.

TO HASTEN OPENING U. S. RESERVE BANKS

ed but those for the new fives and tens are ready. It is the plan to issue about $250,000,000, of this money to the twelve reserve banks to replace Aldrich-Vreeland currency now in circulation.

RICHMOND BANK IS READY.

George Seaey Elected Governor; James A. Moncure, Secretary.

Richmond, Oct. 5.—The Federal Reserve bank for the Fifth, or Richmond, district, was made ready today by the election of George Seaey as governor. James A. Moncure was appointed secretary. The bank with temporary quarters rented is now ready to open for business at the order of the Federal Reserve Board.

New York Bank Organized.

New York, Oct. 5.—Directors of the Federal reserve bank for the New York district including Pierre Jay, George Foster Peabody and Charles Starek, the government representatives, met here today and formally organized by electing Benjamin Strong, Jr., president of the Bankers Trust Co., as governor. Mr. Strong will have to resign from his present position before assuming his new duties.

VON KLUCK CONTINUES TO MAKE DETERMINED

the Russian headquarters' staff saying:

"The defeat of the Germans is complete. Their retreat is changing into a rout that is so disorderly and precipitate that they are forced to abandon everything.

"Two Russian armies are proceeding, one from the west and another from the south, toward Allenstein (in East Prussia, 50 miles southeast of Elbing).

"The German losses have not yet been officially ascertained, but it is estimated that they had 70,000 men disabled."

PARIS AFTERNOON REPORT.

Official Statement Says French Forced to Yield at Certain Points.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The following official communication was given out in Paris this afternoon:

"On our left wing to the north of the Oise, the battle continues with great violence. The result remains indecisive. We have been obliged, at certain points, to yield ground.

"Along the remainder of the front there has been no change.

"In Russia, after a battle which lasted ten days, the German army which was operating between the East Prussian frontier and the Niemen river, has been driven back along the entire line and made its retreat, abandoning a considerable quantity of war material. This army has evacuated completely the territory of the Russian provinces of Suwalki and Lonja."

FOR RELIEF OF AMERICANS IN THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE

Ambassador Appeals for Additional Funds—Message From Turkey.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Ambassador Morgantheau, at Constantinople, has appealed to the State Department for additional funds for the relief of Americans in the Ottoman empire. The recent deposit by this government of $150,000 has been found inadequate.

Ambassadors Page and Herrick, at London and Paris respectively, were advised of the situation in an effort to make immediately available funds for the Turkish distribution, and steps also were taken in that direction by the Treasury Department officers.

A private dispatch to the State Department today said conditions in Jeruselum were such that food could not be obtained by a large portion of the population and many were facing starvation. Officials here were undecided as to what relief could be obtained.

IF FOR DOMESTIC USE ONLY.

Copper Shipments From Neutral Countries Will not be Molested.

Washington, Oct. 5.—American copper shipments to neutral countries will not be molested by British ships when covered by an understanding between shippers and consignees that they are for domestic use only. This was made known here today after a conference between Secretary Bryan and Sir Cecil Spring Rice, British ambassador.

PLAIN TALK No. 3
If a business man went to his quarters. Visit the tenants already in and found the chairs in his library dusty; pictures hanging crooked on the wall; the room cold; a general sense of untidiness, uncleanliness and general disorder, he would register a kick and a howl that would be heard all over the house. And yet this same man spends his hours of business in an office where intelligent and regular janitor service is unknown; in fact where there are no facilities for such service. He sits through the dirt and dust. His clients and friends call; they do not see; they have become accustomed and hardened to the old order of things. And there lies the point. Few NEW faces do come. There is no attraction. Look this square in the face. Is this the case in your business? Think it over. There is a building in Wilmington which remedies all of these and many other troubles for $12.00 a month and up. Brighten up. Stir around a bit. Get yourself in the Murchison National Bank Building, and be proud of your office quparters. Visit the tenants already in this handsome building; talk to them. They have a message for you.
